U.S. Cambodia Mission 'Doomed'

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — U.S. presidential envoy Chester Bowles arrived today to seek Prince Norodom Sihanouk's help in keeping North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces from using Cambodia as a sanctuary. But the Cambodian chief of state in effect told a news conference the American ambassador's mission was doomed.

Sihanouk told newsmen yesterday he would see Bowles, the U.S. ambassador to India. But he suggested that the American envoy would do better to spend his time touring the famous temple ruins at Angkor.

American sources in New Delhi said Bowles would concentrate on the question of Communist Vietnamese troops taking sanctuary in Cambodian border areas. He was expected to seek tacit agreement from Sihanouk to permit pursuit by U.S. forces of Communist troops who attack them in Vietnam and then retreat into Cambodia.

In response to questions submitted by The Associated Press, Sihanouk said Saturday that "we would not intervene militarily if a fight between Americans and infiltrated Vietnamese, therefore one as much at fault as the other, took place in the outlying and uninhabited regions of our territory."

But the prince told the news conference yesterday he would not allow U.S. forces to pursue the Viet Cong into Cambodia and would condemn both sides if they clashed on his soil.

Sihanouk said he would tell Bowles there is 'no possibility of negotiating the right of pursuit" of Communist forces into Cambodia.

The prince also said he would tell Bowles the United States should follow France's example in Algeria and "rid yourself of the Saigon parasites." He said he would suggest that the United States withdraw its troops, adding: "This would be pretty good for you on the international stage. It will give you immense prestige."

Sihanouk then attacked President Johnson, saying he would "never lick the boots of that Johnson."

"If he wants to talk, he will come to my house," he said.

ROBBERY VICTIM DIES OF WOUNDS

Two San Rafael Men Accused In Theft; D.A. Office Considering Murder Charges

The 68-year-old gun collector who was beaten by a trio of robbers at his San Rafael apartment Dec. 7, died Saturday in Marin General Hospital.

Deputy County Coroner Keith Craig said Wesley L. Marshall, of 142 Bungalow Avenue, died of head injuries suffered in the beating.

CONFERENCE

Asst. Dist. Atty. Leonard Shaw said today that deputies in his office were conferring on whether to charge the two men with murder.

LeBas, charged with three other armed robberies, remains in jail. Novotny is free on $2,500 bail.

Marshall, also a retired contractor, was robbed of a collection of 10 guns Dec. 7. His telephone was ripped from the wall. He was beaten, tied with rags, and left with bruises over his body.

He lay tied up in his room until a neighbor entered the house and found him three days later. Marshall had been in the hospital since Dec. 10.

San Rafael police said Marshall refused the help of neighbors who appeared at his home the day after the attack. Worried about his disappearance, they knocked at his door twice and heard him say: "I'm all right."

Marshall's attackers apparently tried to get an ambulance to his home four hours after the beating, but gave the wrong address, officers said.

CRANK CALL

An ambulance responded to 146 Bungalow Avenue and found nothing amiss. It was listed as a crank call.

Police, responding to a neighbor's call Dec. 10, found Marshall with his face black and blue.

Marshall told officers that three men in their early 20s came to the door and said they wanted to talk with him. Once inside, he said, they attacked him and stole his gun collection.

Arceo denied any connection with the Marshall beating. San Rafael police said, however, they believed he was the anonymous caller who sent the ambulance to the wrong address the night of the beating.

According to police, the robbers became worried when no report appeared in the newspaper the day following the robbery and they drove to the house. It was dark.

Arceo and LeBas are charged with the Nov. 27 robbery of Julian's Shell service station in Strawberry and the Nov. 30 robbery of Don's Market in Fairfax. LeBas is alone charged with the Dec. 11 robbery of Perry's Delicatessen at 1005 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael.

Arceo and LeBas have been bound over to Superior Court on these charges, following a preliminary hearing in Municipal Court.

Preliminary hearing for LeBas and Novotny on the Marshall robbery charges was to be set in Municipal Court today.

Heart Operation Patient Is Critical

Doctors Report Bleeding

STANFORD (AP) — Michael Kasperak, who received a transplanted heart Saturday night, began to bleed from the stomach and bowels today, and doctors said his condition was critical.

Although the surgeons would not speculate on the cause of bleeding, Kasperak's platelet count—one of the blood's clotting factors—was extremely low 4,000 compared with a normal of 250,000. (See also other stories, pictures, page 6.)

WAS ADEQUATE

After the operation the platelet count was adequate.

The prothrombin time—a different index of clotting ability—was only 23 per cent.

Doctors said the patient's liver function was poor because of the chronic heart condition which led to the heart transplant.

Kasperak was being given fresh blood transfusions in an attempt to save his life.

In the fourth such transplant in history, Kasperak received the heart of Virginia White, a housewife who died two hours earlier of a stroke.

OMINOUS TURN

Until today's sudden ominous development, Kasperak had been able to understand question and comments, although he could not speak because of a

McCarthy Keeps Committee Post

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assembly Republicans moved today to unseat Democratic Speaker Jesse M. Unruh and replace him with GOP floor leader Robert T. Monagan.

Monagan charged the powerful speaker was trying to use the legislative session to wreck Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan's chances for the GOP presidential nomination.

Monagan emerged from a caucus of the 38-man Republican Bloc as the GOP's choice to make the first serious challenge of Unruh since his election in 1961.

But his chances appeared dim. Democrats control the house 42-38 and Monagan would have to win three Democratic votes for victory.

Nevertheless, the GOP was determined to fight as the 1968 legislature prepared to convene — even if the price of defeat was high. Monagan said Unruh indicated to him last night that Republicans likely would be stripped of their committee chairmanships in the event of a challenge.

Republicans were in a fighting mood in the Senate, too. Senate President pro tem Hugh M. Burns, D-Fresno, survived a GOP challenge in a closed caucus of the upper house and defeated Sen. Donald Grunsky, R-Watsonville 28-12. Grunsky said he would carry his fight to the formal vote on the Senate floor when the 1968 session formally opened later today.

The Senate is split with 20 Republicans and 20 Democrats.

Militant Republican senators also lost their fight to remove Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, from the Rules Committee, which assigns bills to committees. McCarthy had de-

South African Nears Critical Surgery Period

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Groote Schuur Hospital said in a medical bulletin today that Dr. Philip Blaiberg, the world's third heart transplant patient, "is no longer in the oxygen tent and will be allowed to sit up in bed today with his feet on a chair."

The 58-year-old retired dentist neared what doctors consider to be the beginning of the critical postoperative period—seven days after surgery. However, the bulletin said there were no signs yet that Blaiberg's body was trying to reject the heart of Clive Haupt, 24, who died of a brain hemorrhage.

Haupt's heart was grafted into Blaiberg last Tuesday by Dr. Christiaan Barnard, who also performed the landmark heart transplant operation last month on Louis Washkansky.

Fog Is Expected To Lift; Rain Seen Tomorrow

The heavy fog covering Marin for the past six days was expected to clear tomorrow — in time for rain.

The Weather Bureau predicts a storm from the North Pacific will bring rain as far south as San Francisco late tomorrow afternoon. Snow is predicted for the mountains.

Temperatures tonight will be 35 to 45 degrees and tomorrow, 45 to 55 degrees with gentle winds.

Fog closed the Marin County Airport at Novato and Hamilton Air Force Base to visual flights today and most of yesterday.

Traces of rain were reported today in San Anselmo and Larkspur.

Low temperatures last night in Marin were Bolinas, 30; Novato, 31, and San Anselmo, 36. Tamalpais Valley recorded 28 degrees this morning. Belvedere, 38.

Alioto Is Inaugurated In Festive Ceremony

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Joseph L. Alioto took office as San Francisco' 34th mayor today in inaugural ceremonies that spanned most of the day and were the most elaborate in the city's history.

The day's events for the wealthy attorney began with an ecumenical mass at St. Peter and Paul's Roman Catholic Church in North Beach, boyhood church of the new mayor.

Archbishop Joseph McGucken and representatives of Protestant, Jewish and Orthodox faiths were in attendance.

Following a motorcade to City Hall for the swearing-in of three new city supervisors, the nonpartisan inaugural scene shifted to the nearby Opera House for the mayor's formal induction.

U.S. District Judge George B. Harris was master of ceremonies, with U.S. District Judge Alfonso Zirpoli administering the oath.

Invocation was by Episcopal Bishop C. Kilmer Myers, and closing prayer by Rabbi Elliot M. Burstein.

Outgoing Mayor John F. Shelley, the 11-member board of supervisors, and representatives of all walks of city life were in attendance.

Final event on the crowded schedule is a $100-a-plate dinner tonight at the Fairmont Hotel for more than 1,700 persons.

San Francisco Still Minus Papers; Conspiracy Charges

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Conspiracy charges have been filed by San Francisco's two major daily newspapers against seven striking unions who threw up picket lines around their joint printing plant.

Neither the morning Chronicle nor the afternoon Examiner has been published since Friday when 14 pickets appeared from Los Angeles, where they have been on strike against the Herald-Examiner since Dec. 15.

San Francisco newspaper employees refused to cross the "informational" picket lines, and on Saturday the Mailers Union Local 18 struck both the Chronicle and Examiner.

An attorney for the Chronicle, R. Barry Churton, said yesterday conspiracy charges had been filed with the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) because "the Mailers Union strike is all part and parcel of a deal with the Los Angeles unions to close down the San Francisco papers."

The Examiner newspapers in both cities are owned by the Hearst Corp. and an American Newspaper Guild spokesman said the Los Angeles pickets planned to move on to other Hearst papers on the west coast, probably in Seattle.

The conspiracy charges were filed by the Chronicle, the Examiner and the San Francisco Newspaper Printing Co., which prints and distributes both papers. They publish a joint Sunday edition.

A spokesman for the Mailers said talks had also been broken off at the Oakland Tribune and the San Jose Mercury - News, but there were no plans to strike those two Northern California papers at present.

The Chronicle has a daily circulation of 490,000 and the Examiner has 220,000.

50 Commuters Hurt In Boston Collision

BOSTON (AP) — At least 50 persons were injured today in the rear-end collision of two commuter-packed rapid transit trains near Logan International Airport.

The trains were heading for Boston from East Boston and eastern suburbs with a total of some 1,500 passengers aboard.

Cong Ravage Village But Fail To Take U.S. Compound

SAIGON (UPI)—A force of 600-700 Viet Cong invaded a provincial capital 15 miles from the heart of Saigon today and ravaged it for three hours. But they failed to take a U.S. military compound there when the small group of Americans poured out a deadly stream of fire.

Troops of the 269th Viet Cong Main Force Battalion supported by local recruits laid down a vicious barrage of mortars, rockets and recoilless rifle fire, then fought their way through the streets of Khiem Cuong.

The American compound apparently was one of their main targets. The small group kept the Communists at bay but was unable to prevent the Viet Cong from terrorizing the village itself for thee hours in the latest of a recent series of terror attacks.

The attack was the main thrust of a four-prong raid in Hau Nghia Province which borders on Saigon's suburban Gia Dinh area. The headquarters company of the Vietnamese 25th Division, the village of Duc Hoa and a Special Forces camp at Tra Cu, all nearby, also were hit.

First reports from the flaming streets of Khiem Cuong said four civilians were killed and 16 wounded in the guerrilla raid that followed a savage bombardment by 600 mortar shells.

Government spokesmen acknowledged they expected the casualty count to go higher. Rescue troops pulled stunned, weeping survivors from hideout holes they had dug beneath their homes.

Nine policemen died defending their streets, spokesmen said. Local troop losses were called "moderate."

The Viet Cong had mortared the city and three nearby military posts and then charged in.

It marked the second guerrilla attack in three days on Saigon's doorstep. Saturday a similar Communist thrust overran the town of Tan Uyen, 20 miles north of the capital, burned 110 homes and terrorized the populace.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Payments, Coverage Increase, Expand

(EDITOR'S NOTE: New Social Security legislation signed by President Johnson Jan. 2 directly affects millions of Americans, young and old. Following is the first of five dispatches explaining the new amendments and telling what people must do to qualify for benefits.)

By ROBERT M. BALL
Social Security Commissioner
Written for UPI

WASHINGTON (UPI —The Social Security amendments of 1967, recently signed into law by President Johnson, raise monthly payments for about 23.7 million men, women, and children on the Social Security benefit rolls and will make another 465,000 persons newly eligible for monthly Social Security benefits.

They also expand and improve medicare protection for people 65 and over.

If you are among the 23.7 million now receiving monthly Social Security benefits, you do not have to do anything to get the increase in your benefits. It will come to you automatically, beginning with the check due early in March.

All beneficiaries will get an increase of at least 13 per cent. And those getting payments at or a little above the minimum of $44 will get more than 13 per cent, as the minimum benefit is raised to $55 a month.

The special benefits, payable to persons 72 and older who did not work long enough under Social Security to qualify for regular benefits, will also go up automatically—from $35 to $40 for a single person, and from $52.50 to $60 for a couple.

But some people must take steps to quality for new benefits. If you think you fit into one of the categories listed below, get in touch with your Social Security office promptly.

(If you telephone first, the people at the Social Security office will be able to tell you what papers you may need to bring with you and will make an appointment for you to save

Many Major Industries See Business Rise In '68

WASHINGTON (AP) — Substantial business advances are foreseen this year by nearly all of 86 major industries surveyed annually by the Commerce Department.

Nearly two-thirds of the industries—many of which suffered 1967 declines—expect increases of five per cent or more, according to the department's report, "U.S. Industrial Outlook 1968," released yesterday.

Seven industries expect gains of more than 10 per cent: Automobiles expect 13 per cent, civilian aircraft 45 per cent, motels 15 per cent, photographic equipment 10 per cent, construction machinery, 13.7 per cent, and copper brass mill products, 15 per cent.

Only the railroad-car building industry expects a decline.

The transportation equipment industry as a whole, on the rebound from the long 1967 Ford strike, expects a million more cars to be produced than last year's 7.4 million total.

The Commerce report indicated smaller segments of major industries also can expect substantial gains. The use of aluminum cans, for example, has risen 400 per cent in five years and is expected to double this year. At the same time, steel-can production has risen less than 10 per cent. The photocopying industry expects a 20 per cent increase in sales.

Zip Code Check And Next Base

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Air Force Maj. Ken Anderson found a loophole in the secrecy that surrounded his new assignment.

The major, being transferred from Beale Air Force Base, was told his destination was classified and could not be disclosed.

He noted that his orders included the postal zip code for his new base, checked the zip code directory at the post office, and found he was headed for Da Nang, South Vietnam.

Percy Says GOP Needs Demo Votes

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., says Richard M. Nixon is probably the favorite presidential prospect of Republican professionals but New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller would attract more of the independent and Democratic votes needed for a White House drive.

Percy said yesterday Republican officials have known and worked with Nixon and "for better or for worse, he has been a solid Republican."

But, Percy added, the GOP presidential nominee won't be able to win the White House just with Republican votes.

BEST CHANCE

"I think it is the general consensus now, even among many professional Republicans, that Mr. Rockefeller, if he could hold together the Republican party, would probably have the best chance to attract independents and Democrats," Percy said. "He has the greatest appeal to them today but that is not what might happen in August at the convention."

As for himself, Percy said again he doesn't plan to be a candidate other than as a favorite son from Illinois.

Percy appeared on NBC's "Meet the Press."

EXPECT TO LOSE

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., like Percy an opponent of the administration's Vietnam war policy, said some antiwar senators aren't endorsing his announced presidential candidacy because they expect him to lose.

"I don't think that's the kind of excuse that really stands up very well," he said.

McCarthy plans to enter several Democratic primaries against President Johnson but there have been indications he is unhappy because Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., hasn't expressed support for him.

McCarthy said he doesn't expect antiwar senators up for reelection this year to get involved in choosing between him and Johnson. But he added that "so far as senators who have supported the position I take and who are not running, there is a little bit more of a burden upon them to take a stand." Kennedy is not up for re-election this year. He has opposed Johnson's war policy but also has said he will support the President for another term.

McCarthy was on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

12 PER CENT OF VOTE

The Gallup Poll reported that if McCarthy ran as an independent peace candidate in a four-way presidential race, he would get about 12 per cent of the vote. The poll matched McCarthy against Johnson, Nixon and former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, who may run as a states rights third-party candidate.

In the poll, Johnson got 39 per cent of the vote, Nixon 30 per cent, McCarthy 12 per cent and Wallace 11 per cent.

Man Survives Forehead Shot

WASHINGTON (AP) — The owner of a Washington carry-out food shop was shot in the forehead by a bandit yesterday. He survived and says he's thinking of getting out of the business.

Three bandits walked into Lawrence C. Kelly's shop and one of them put what authorities think was a .22-caliber pistol to his forehead and pulled the trigger. The slug penetrated the skin but didn't pierce the bone. It was removed at a hospital and Kelly was released.

Kelly, 23, said the robber pulled the trigger several more times—"three or four, but I wasn't counting at that point"—but the pistol failed to fire.

Mooncraft Speeding Toward Soft Landing

PASADENA (AP) — A final direction change will be sent tonight to Surveyor 7, the last scheduled U.S. unmanned mooncraft, speeding toward a planned soft landing on rugged lunar terrain.

Flight controllers at Jet Propulsion Laboratory will adjust the path of the instrument-loaded craft in an attempt to put it 18 miles north of the crater Tycho, near the south-central edge of the lunar disc.

Surveyor is expected to be some 51,000 miles from the moon when the course alteration is made at 10:30 p.m., PST. The landing is planned for tonight.

Controllers radioed an initial direction change yesterday afternoon and said the operation went well.

The course adjustments were necessary because the booster rocket that powered the 2,288-pound vehicle from Cape Kennedy, Fla., early yesterday aimed it at the crater Hipparchus, 1,000 miles north of Tycho.

THE PENNEY STORY

Why make such a big deal out of quality?

By ROBERTA NASH

I asked a Penney-store manager the question once and when he finally decided I was serious, he said, "If I could use only one word to describe the phenomenon of Penney's, I'd pick the word, quality.

"Mr. Penney has always been a fanatic on the subject," he continued. "They say the only thing that still makes Mr. Penney angry is when someone suggests we compromise Penney quality to make a lower price."

Conservative Cardinal Steps Down

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani, the most powerful ultra-conservative in the Roman Catholic Church, has resigned from the church's central administration and Pope Paul VI has accepted the resignation, the Vatican announced today.

The Pope named Franjo Cardinal Seper of Yugoslavia, 62, to replace the 77-year-old Cardinal Ottaviani as secretary for the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, the former Holy Office and the most powerful single agency in the Vatican Curia, the church's central administration.

The Holy Office was a legacy of the Inquisition. Cardinal Ottaviani once described himself as a policeman who guarded traditional doctrine and theology.

The retirement of Cardinal Ottaviani and his replacement by a prelate from a Communist country that once imprisoned a Catholic cardinal marked a major turning point.

In dramatic fashion it signified the move of the half-billion-member church away from rigid conservatism toward new experiments in modernism and changing relations with Communist countries.

ALFREDO CARDINAL OTTAVIANA
Long a church power

Now nearly blind, the cardinal resigned after years of conflict with liberal prelates pressing for modernization and reform in the church. Pope Paul reportedly wanted Cardinal Ottaviani to quit after he expressed his desire for all prelates over the age of 75 to offer their resignation, but it was said that the cardinal refused.

The advocates of change won many important victories. They succeeded in ending the index of forbidden books, in winning more open trial procedures for clerics called on the carpet for unorthodox writings, and in changing the name of the Holy Office.

Hub Man Retires From Forest Service

A. Allen McCutchen of San Anselmo has retired from the Forest Service after 38 years of service in four states, according to Regional Forester J. W. Deinema.

McCutchen has been in charge of personnel management for the forest service in California since 1957. He was presented a $500 award by Deinema for his continued superior performance upon his retirement.

Stereo Stolen

Robert A. Lombardi of 311 Bretano Way, Greenbrae, reported to sheriff's deputies Thursday that an auto stereophonic system, valued at $160, and 22 tapes were taken from his car while it was in a College of Marin parking lot along Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield.

Murder Charge Filed Against Mother Of Boy

A murder charge has been filed against Mary Jo Goodson, 36, of San Rafael, who is accused of fatally stabbing her 3-year-old son, Richard Anthony, on Dec. 30.

Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said Mrs. Goodson would be brought from Napa State Hospital, where she has been undergoing psychiatric examination, Monday at 1:30 p.m. for arraignment in Marin Municipal Court.

Bales said that he was "compelled to file the murder charge" after talking with doctors at Napa, who indicated that Mrs. Goodson could only be adjudged at this time as emotionally distraught.

The body of her son was found in a storage room of the apartment building where she lived at 725 Kerner Boulevard. Police said the boy had been stabbed in the back at least twice with a knife.

Mailliard To Talk

Rep. William S. Mailliard will be guest speaker at the Feb. 14 meeting of the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen, to be hosted by Tiburon, Mayor John S. Hoffmire announced.

Car Makers Hit For Hiking Prices Over Safety Belts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Auto industry critic Ralph Nader has called for a congressional investigation into car manufacturers' price hikes and two senators charged the boosts are aimed at discrediting new safety requirements.

The price rise was made necessary, the auto industry has said, by required installation of shoulder-harness safety belts in cars made after Jan. 1.

Nader asked Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., chairman of the Senate subcommittee on antitrust and monopoly, to open hearings, declaring the industry ignored warnings from President Johnson and members of Congress to keep prices from rising substantially.

Sens. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., and Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., said New Year's price hikes of $23 to $32 a car "may be more than 10 times the actual cost" of installing the shoulder-harness safety belts.

They added in a statement that the price hike "erases any doubt that the American automobile industry has been conducting a propaganda campaign to make safety the scapegoat for increases" and said this is "grossly misleading and completely unjustifiable."

They asked the National Traffic Safety Agency to speed up efforts to pinpoint auto safety costs in order to rebut the industry's "outrageous propaganda campaign."

Spokesmen for the four major manufacturers declined immediate comment on the charges.

Income Tax Class

Joseph J. Rasonsky of Forest Knolls, former special agent for the Internal Revenue Service who is suing the service for $250,000 for wrongful dismissal, will teach a seven-week course in income tax preparation at College of Marin beginning Jan. 17 at 7:30 p.m.

Thief May Be Suffering Burns From Nickel Haul

Whoever stole nickel and other items worth a total of $4,410 from a San Rafael plating company may be suffering serious burns to the hands, body and feet, police said today.

The nickel, weighing 200 pounds, was lifted out of acid at Western Plating at 714 Francisco Boulevard yesterday after the door had been kicked in. Also missing were 12 polishing wheels and an electric adding machine.

Police said a large amount of acid was spilled by the thief and unless it was washed off the skin immediately "the burns would be quite bad."

fected to support Burns.

Monagan charged Unruh, from Inglewood, with excessive partisanship and said "the object of Mr. Unruh is to put the legislative session in such a context that he (Reagan) will look bad going back to the convention."

The governor has insisted that he is not a candidate but is considered a leading possibility, anyway. He is hoping to win from the legislature approval of some major programs, including a reform of the tax system. A solid legislative record would enhance his chances at the GOP national convention in August.

But Monagan, from Tracy, warned that Assembly Democrats, led by Unruh, will hold up Reagan's program until the national convention. "The majority party will decide which portions of the governor's program will pass," he said.

"A great number of Republicans have been disatisfied with the manner in which Mr. Unruh has operated the house," said Monagan, declaring that the GOP was angry with the speakers attacks on Reagan on such issues as medical care for the poor and with his insistence on withholding of personal income taxes.

"This will be a very difficult session of the legislature and Mr. Unruh has set the tone for it," he said.

Welfare Check Case Goes To Muni Court

Graydon Harr of 27 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court Friday on a charge of passing a forged county welfare check.

Harr allegedly took the $92 check from the mailbox of his ex-wife, Kathleen, on Dec. 1, opened a savings account with it Dec. 18, then withdrew the money the following day.

Tools Stolen

HEART

Kasperak, 54, of nearby East Palo Alto, was dying of heart disease Saturday night when Dr. Norman E. Shumway's surgical team at Stanford University School of Medicine cut out his heart and implanted Mrs. White's. The 43-year-old Santa Clara woman had died two hours earlier after a stroke.

Shumway said his patient knew he had a donated heart beating in his chest. It was one-third the size of the enlarged one that had been discarded, but it was performing well, Shumway said.

Blood pressure, pulse and body temperature were in a reasonable range, Dr. Donald C. Harrison, a cardiologist, told a news conference at Stanford Medical Center yesterday afternoon. Harrison said the heart output—amount of blood pumped—was 5.3 liters per minute, "almost normal for a man of Kasperak's size" when measured about 12 hours after the 4½-hour operation. The patient weighs 144 pounds. Mrs. White's weight was 120.

FIRST REPORTS

Dr. Shumway said Kasperak was expected to stay in the hospital many months for observation.

"This kind of followup is essential to the well being of the recipient," Dr. Shumway said. "We've reached first base perhaps, but the work is only beginning."

He stressed, "There is no way at this time to term the episode a success." But his and Harrison's elation were evident.

"The critical period lasts as long as the patient lives," Dr. Shumway said, explaining that the body could reject a foreign organ months or even years after it entered the body.

Kasperak is being given drugs to suppress the rejection mechanism.

Chronic viral myocarditis, an infection that the steelworker contracted perhaps 10 years ago, had been arrested, the doctors explained. But his heart muscle continued to turn into fibrous tissue and enlarge.

He had been suffering chronic heart failure for the past two years and was forced to quit work 18 months ago. A severe episode put him in the hospital three weeks ago.

Mrs. White, a camper and water skier, had no history of serious illness before she suffered a stroke on Friday, the day after her 22nd wedding anniversary, and lapsed into a coma.

She was kept alive by artificial respiration and drugs but the family doctor and a specialist told her husband, Bill, there was no hope.

Washkansky died of pneumonia 18 days after the operation.

No infection is evident in any of Blaiberg's organs so far, the hospital said. His wife, Eileen, was to see him again today but to guard against infection she was expected to speak to him once more through a glass door.

Mrs. Blaiberg said of her first visit with her husband yesterday: "He was looking too wonderful for words. He joked all the time and was very talkative."

The dentist is now on an ordinary diet, but all his food is prepared on a special cooker and sterile utensils are used, the hospital said.

Barnard sent his congratulations to his classmate from the University of Minnesota, Dr. Norman E. Shumway, who performed the world's fourth heart transplant operation at Stanford University Saturday night.

In an interview with the National Broadcasting Corp. shown Saturday night in the United States, Barnard disclosed that arthritis in his hands may limit or even end his surgical career. He said the arthritis has been with him ever since his days as a student in America in the 1950s.

Although he takes drugs for the condition, he said, "my hands are still swollen and my joints are slightly swollen." The painful condition is a stimulus to bear down on his surgery now, Barnard said, "because I don't know when I'll be completely stopped from doing surgery as a result of the arthritis."

Revolver Taken

Someone took a .38-caliber Smith and Wesson revolver from his camper while it was parked in his yard at 695 Orange Avenue, Novato, James R. Phillips reported yesterday to police. The theft occurred between Dec. 10 and yesterday, he said.

Youth Arrested Following Fight Over Long Hair

A 19-year-old Terra Linda youth, reportedly "high" on narcotics, was arrested on a citizen's warrant by police last night after he allegedly hit his father during an argument over the youth's long hair.

David Forbes Allen or 9 Elda Court was booked in Marin County Jail on suspicion of assault and battery and being under the influence of narcotics.

His mother, Catherine, called police and said David had struck his father, Bertran, 52, and told members of the family, "I'll kill you all."

She said her son had become violent after the father had told him to get his haircut or leave home.

Police said the suspect appeared under the influence of a narcotic. He was being held in jail today on $755 bail.

Marin Airport Aide Picked

Willard Dale Reed, 47, retired Air Force captain living in Fairfax, will begin work Jan. 15 as attendant, or assistant manager, at the Marin County Airport at Novato.

Reed, who lives at 105 Live Oak Avenue, is manager of Post Exchange No. 5 and restaurant at Hamilton Air Force Base. He was station manager for Slick Airways Inc. at Kelly Air Force base in Texas and ramp supervisor for the same firm at San Francisco International Airport.

He retired from the Air Force in 1963 after 22 years' service.

Cluster Housing Hearing Slated

A public hearing on a zoning ordinance amendment to permit cluster housing is scheduled for the 7:30 p.m. meeting of Corte Madera Planning Commission today at town hall.

The hearing starts at 8 p.m.

Also scheduled is consideration of requests for a canopy over gas pump islands for a Shell Oil Co. station at 5649 Paradise Drive, and by Lytton Savings and Loan Association of Northern California for enclosure of the decks on three-bedroom models for Mariner Green townhouses.

$2,500 Burglary Is Being Probed

Burglars last week took more than $2,500 worth of clothes and furnishings from an apartment at 500 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley, police reported today.

The tenants, Dennis M. Talbott, James S. McHugh and Joseph Kerchelich, reported the theft Friday afternoon.

A list of the loot included two television sets, a radio, two wristwatches, extensive jewelry, a shotgun, four suits, six coats and other clothing.

Hearing Is Set In Bribe Charge

A preliminary hearing for David Green, 55-year-old Greenbrae man charged with attempting to bribe three Tehama County supervisors, will be held at 10 a.m. Jan. 18 in the Justice Court at Red Bluff, the county seat.

Green, of 70 Corte Dorado, is free on $30,000 bond pending the hearing before Judge Noel Watkins.

Dist. Atty. Robert W. Trimble of Tehama County has charged that Green attempted to bribe the three supervisors to push through a summer vacation housing development in the county.

Briefing Due

Trustees of Reed School District will be briefed by members of the teaching staff and Supt. H. Joe Edgington on the district's science program at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Del Mar School.

you time and speed your claim. If, because of illness or infirmity, you are unable to visit a Social Security office to make your claim, a representative will come to your home.

Some 65,000 widows, unable to work because of severe disability, will be able to get monthly benefits as early as age 50. Dependent disabled widowers may also be eligible for payments, and in certain cases, the divorced wives of deceased workers.

Another change will make 100,000 younger people—disabled workers and their dependents—eligible for benefits. The amount of Social Security credit required for the payment of benefits to workers who become totally disabled before they reach 31 years of age has been very substantially reduced—for those below 24 years of age to as little as a year and a half of coverage.

CHILD BENEFITS

Some 175,000 children will be eligible for benefits based on the earnings of a mother who has died, or is entitled to disability or retirement benefits. A previous requirement that a woman worker have Social Security credit for at least 1 1-2 years out of the last three years has been removed. Payments can now be made to the children of a woman worker who has died, become disabled, or retired, if she had enough work credits (earned at any time to be "fully insured."

The recent — work requirement has also been removed as a condition for the payment of benefits to the dependent husbands and widowers of women workers. Payments can begin in March to the husband or widower of a fully insured woman worker who was receiving at least one-half his support from his wife at the time she retired, became disabled, or died.

And here is another important fact to know: People 65 and over who missed their first chance to sign up for medical insurance to supplement their basic hospital insurance under medicare have until April 1 to enroll.

Many will be getting an enrollment card in the mail that they can send in if they want the protection that covers doctor bills and many other medical expenses in and out of the hospital.

If you don't get a card—or if you don't want to wait until the card comes—you can sign up now by getting in touch with your Social Security office.

If, however, you are among the 17.9 million older people who are signed up for both parts of medicare, you don't have to do anything.

Early in March, with your Social Security check, if you are collecting monthly payments, you will get information about the improvements in your medicare protection—to be followed by a new "medicare handbook" giving you the full details on your medicare and how to use it.

Edward Adams, 74, a retired shipworker, was found dead at his home, 941 C Street, Apt. 5, San Rafael, at 2:02 p.m. Saturday, apparently of natural causes.

Deputy County Coroner Keith Craig said that Adams was found by a friend and had been dead a day or a day and a half when found.

A native of California, Adams had been a resident of Marin for 27 years and had worked at Marinship during World War II. He was "a familiar courthouse figure," Craig said.

Surviving are a son Andrew Adams, whose address is unkown, and five neices in the Bay Area.

Gasoline Sales Tax Is Proposed

Special to the I-J

LOS ANGELES — A sales tax on gasoline to finance mass transportation has been proposed by Assemblymen Frank Lanterman, R-Pasadena.

Lanterman, in a speech here Friday, said he will sponsor legislation this year to permit voters to ballot by county on removing the sales tax exemption on gasoline and earmarking receipts for "broad transportation purposes, including rapid transit."

Gasoline already carries a seven-cent state gas tax and a four-cent federal gas tax.

Lanterman introduced a similar bill last year, but it failed to clear the Senate Transportation Committee after passing in the Assembly. It would have required only legislative approval, unlike the new proposal for local option on whether to tax gas sales.

Gov. Ronald Reagan has indicated he would sign such legislation, Lanterman's office reported.

Jewel Theft Figure Gets His Release

Richard G. Cross, former Corte Maderan whose wife stole a quarter-million in jewels from Shreve and Co. in San Francisco in 1966, has been ordered released from a state mental institution for a new examination in the case.

The order for release of the 43-year-old Cross was issued Friday by Judge Thomas Healey of Solano County Superior Court, the Associated Press reported. Cross has been confined at California Medical Facility near Vacaville. He applied for a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge Healey said Cross had not been properly advised and treated before being sent to the institution 15 months ago after pleading guilty to grand theft from his employer, Roos-Atkins Co.

Cross and his German-born wife, Irmgard, were both charged with the Shreve jewel theft. Mrs. Cross pleaded guilty and was given a suspended sentence on condition that she return to Germany.

Cross pleaded guilty to stealing $1,470 from a Roos-Atkins store he managed, but has never stood trial on the jewel theft charge.

They were arrested April 29, 1966, in the Canary Islands, where they fled after the jewel theft. They resided in San Francisco at the time of the thefts.

Marin Estates Club Sets Annual Session

The Marin Estates Homeowners Association has scheduled the annual membership meeting for 8 p.m. March 7 at Granada School, Corte Madera.

Pierre W. Joske, county director of recreation and parks, will present a proposal at the annual meeting for creation of a 250-acre recreation park in East Corte Madera.

Lock For Steering Announced By G.M.

DETROIT (AP) — All 1969 General Motors Corp. automobiles will be equipped with ignition switches that will automatically lock the the steering column and the transmission.

This will go beyond and beat by more than a year a proposed federal rule that would require all automobiles manufactured after Jan. 1, 1970, to have switches that will lock either the steering column or transmission, as well as the ignition system.

In addition to the transmission or steering lock which the National Highway Safety Bureau proposes to make mandatory, the federal agency also would require after Jan. 1, 1970, a warning device that would alert the driver when the door is opened that he has left his key in the switch.

G.M. said a buzzer warning device it installed in 1968 models will be continued.

G.M.'s new locking system will make it impossible for a driver to remove the ignition key until the car is locked properly. The switch for the single-key system will be on the steering column.

Bull Tramples Man To Death

MONKTON, Vt. (AP) — A bull being led outside for watering knocked a 77-year-old farmer to the ground and then trampled and butted him to death in the barnyard.

A medical examiner said Frederick Weisenbach suffered a crushed chest and bruises of the face and neck in the mishap Saturday night.

Youths Found Hiding In Car

Two youths who had run away from home and an escapee from Juvenile Hall were arrested Friday hiding in a car parked in a lot at Mission Avenue and High Street, San Rafael police reported.

Officers said the the three — a 16-year-old runaway from San Rafael, a 17-year-old runaway from Tiburon, and the 16-year-old escapee were taken to juvenile hall.

Officers said they found what appeared to be marijuana butts in the car, and the escapee had an envelope with a small amount of marijuana.

Trio Booked As Suspects In Burglary

Three youths, one a Marine, have been booked on suspicion of grand theft and burglary for allegedly taking an electric typewriter and bedding from a parked car in San Rafael Thursday night.

Arvina P. Fraser of 908 Fifth Avenue, Apt. 15, San Rafael, said the goods were stolen from her car on Nye Street, near Mission Avenue.

San Rafael police said the youths were arrested by San Francisco police Friday when they allegedly tried to pawn the typewriter there.

Booked were Erick Christiansen, a Marine stationed at Camp Pendleton; Michael E. Gilliam, also 19, address unknown, and Neal L. Hoskins, 18, of 362 Irwin Street, San Rafael. Each was jailed in $1,250 bail.

Besides the San Rafael plice charges against them, detainers were filed by San Francisco police, who accuse them of trying to pawn stolen property. Christiansen also was being held for the Marines.

Injuries Are Minor In One-Car Accident

John Howard Outram, 25, of Box 157, Olema, suffered bruised ribs and scrapes of the chest when his car swerved off Tocaloma Bridge Road, about one mile north of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, at 2 a.m. Saturday.

California Highway Patrol officers said Outram's car skidded on a curve in heavy fog. He was treated at Palm Drive Hospital in Sebastopol, Sonoma County.

Stolen Car Found Near Marin City

A car stolen from near the Ark restaurant at Waldo Point Saturday night was found early yesterday stripped of tires, rims and bucket seats near the Marin City recreation building under construction, sheriff's deputies reported.

The car was owned by Harold Henry McBride of 1333 Fourth Street, San Rafael, deputies said.

You're getting a piece of the action.

This year we're investing 275 million dollars to build a bigger energy system that will serve you better.

Our investment also means growth for California. Construction monies buy new equipment, materials, and meet payrolls for thousands of men. This creates even more jobs, stimulates more business and adds more PG&E property to tax rolls, supporting your local schools and government.

So whether it's better utility service, a new job or a new school—you can bet you'll be in on the action. PG and E Pacific Gas and Electric Company

(UPI Telephoto)

(UPI Telephoto)

Operation Culminates Eight Years' Effort

PALO ALTO (UPI) — To Dr. Norman E. Shumway, his first human heart transplant was the logical culmination of eight years of experimentation with animals.

Speaking with the same precision he uses in the operating room, he described the transplant as a "clinical test" of the techniques developed in his Stanford University lab.

Shumway, a trim, six-foot, grey-haired 44-year-old, showed no signs of fatigue from the four and one-half hour operation and a virtually sleepless night yesterday as he deftly answered the questions of 100 newsmen in a crowded lecture hall.

Shumway, dressed in a white physician's smock and green surgeon's trousers, explained the methods used to move the heart of a housewife into the chest of a retired steelworker.

The United States' first adult heart transplant came eight years after Shumway and a Stanford colleague reported on a new surgical technique used to transplant a dog's heart. The first canine recipient lived eight days.

Last November, Shumway announced the technique was ready for use on humans if a suitable donor and recipient were available at the same time.

But a former colleague of his at the University of Minnesota, Dr. Christiaan Barnard of South Africa, got the first chance on Dec. 3 to use the methods devised by Shumway.

He joined the Stanford faculty in 1958 after two years as a special trainee at the National Heart Institute at the Universi- of Minnesota.

News Of Transplant Withheld, Mother Discusses South African

CLEVELAND (AP) — "It is a miracle of God if the man lives," said Anna Kasperak, sitting in her kitchen with a statue of the infant Jesus of Prague next to her. (Other stories, page 1.)

She was talking, not about about her son, Mike, who underwent a heart transplant operation at Stanford University School of Medicine, but about the latest South African heart transplant operation.

Mrs. Kasperak, 79, was not concerned about her son because she has not been told that Mike has a new heart. Mrs. Kasperak has a weak heart, and members of the family are afraid she will go into shock if she hears the news.

They let newsmen talk to her last night, with her daughter, Helen, translating because Mrs. Kasperak speaks only Slovak. She talked about her son, about coming to this country as an immigrant in 1905, about her husband Andrew who died of a heart attack in 1945, and — at the questioning of the reporter — about the heart transplant operation last week in South Africa.

MRS. ANNA KASPERAK
Mother not told

"How is that possible, to take a different heart and put it in a different man?" she asked. "Only if God chooses to make a miracle, only then."

She told of meeting Andrew Kasperak in New York. Her husband worked in the coal mines at Spangler, Pa., for a while, then they moved to Lorain where Mike was born. As a youngster, she recalled, he often went off to the "big lake" (Lake Erie) and fished, bringing home his prizes to his mother.

Mike went to work at the Jones & Laughlin steel plant in Cleveland when he was 16, and Mike worked long and hard, and brought back half of what he earned to his parents.

Mike suffered a heart attack in 1955. His Cleveland doctor, Rudolph Heym, heard about Mike's heart transplant yesterday while watching television.

"I had him in Huron Road Hospital 12 years ago," said Dr. Heym. "We had to give him a tracheotomy his attack was so serious. He was practically dead when we gave him his tracheotomy. He had stopped breathing."

"I took care of him until the time he went to California. He wasn't worried very much about his heart. He was always easy-going, saying whatever will be will be. I think I was more concerned about it than he was."

In his most recent call, to his mother, Christmas Eve, he kidded in Slovak about her youth. She told him the infant Jesus of Prague would always be with him.

Teachers In Session Over New Demands

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Federation of Teachers is holding an "emergency" meeting late today to consider possible action on 98 demands presented to School Superintendent Robert Jenkins, spokesman James Ballard says.

The demands range from reductions in class size to increases in teachers salaries.

HER FATE

Mrs. White Had Wish Come True

PALO ALTO (UPI) — Moved by news of the world's first human heart transplant in South Africa, Mrs. Virginia Mae White remarked last month: "How marvelous to be able to give someone else a chance to live."

Five weeks later Mrs. White had the opportunity, posthumously, to give the chance for life to another person. She became the donor in America's first adult heart transplant.

Surgeons late Saturday removed the diseased heart of a dying man and replaced it with a healthy one taken from Mrs. White, who had died from a massive brain hemorrhage a few hours earlier.

Mrs. White, 43, an avid camper and expert skier had never been seriously ill before her sudden death Saturday just two days before her 22nd wedding anniversary.

In less than 30 minutes, her husband Charles and their two children granted permission for her heart to be transplanted into Mike Kasperak, 54, a retired steelworker.

MRS. VIRGINIA WHITE
The heart donor

"She was the type who would want to do this," said White of the girl who had been his companion since their high school days in Des Moines, Iowa.

White explained the decision of his family in a statement released by the Stanford University Medical School, where the transplant was performed. He said:

"When I look back on it, I guess it all began Nov. 3, when I lost a dear friend of cancer. His wife urged that any contributions be given in his memory to Stanford Medical School, and that seemed to me to be a magnificent thought.

"After my wife was hospitalized, our family doctor and the neurosurgeon told us there was no hope. I asked them if there was any type of research going on relating to what had happened to her, something where she could help. They said they didn't know.

"But a few hours later Dr. (Norman E.) Shumway, whom I've never met, phoned me and explained the possibility of a heart transplant. I asked for time to talk it over with the children and my wife's mother.

"They all said 'yes,' and when I talked with Dr. Shumway about 30 minutes later, I said 'yes'."

General Plan For Fairfax Due Review

The Fairfax general plan, on which a public hearing is to be held Wednesday, will come in for discussion also at tonight's meeting of the Fairfax City Council.

The meeting, opening at 8 p.m., will include a report on the general plan. Wednesday's hearing is to be held by the planning commission, and the council's own public hearing on the plan is scheduled for Jan. 29 at 8 p.m.

Also due for discussion is a proposal for an April 9 municipal election ballot measure to make the offices of city clerk and treasurer appointive instead of elective.

Among the 21 other matters on the council's agenda are a request by the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce for deletion of Highway 17 from the California freeways and expressways system, and decision on whether to proceed against a house at 1008 Meernaa Avenue which has been called a nuisance.

Cyclist Fair From Plunge

BISHOP (AP)—An electronics technician who plunged down a 53-foot abandoned mine shaft on his motorcycle in Tonopah, Nev. yesterday is in "fair to good" condition today with a fractured skull in Northern Inyo Hospital.

Donald F. Anderson, 28, Tonopah, also suffered a fractured pelvis and multiple cuts and bruises in the fall. He had been riding with six buddies to Klondyke, a mining ghost town 15 miles away when the accident occurred.

He was rescued by two men of the Nye County, Nev., search and rescue team who lowered themselves down the eight-foot-square shaft on a rope. A litter basket was used to lift Anderson.

Lot Dividing Before San Rafael Planners

Permission to divide a parcel of land between Grand and Marinita avenues into four residential lots will be asked by Larkins Construction Co. tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at the San Rafael Planning Commission meeting in the city hall.

Also on the agenda is a request to allow a small employment agency in a building at 624 E Street owned by Dr. Robert Allport. The building was previously used as a doctor's office.

Permission to establish a child care center for a maximum of 10 children in her home will be asked by Mary Gray Pittman of 136 San Rafael Avenue.

Site revisions of a food store and dry cleaning building at 703, 705 and 707 B Street are being asked by owner George Kerrigan as the development was not constructed in accordance with approved plans. Realignment of parking spaces and revision of original landscaping plan are included in the request.

Dr. Jack Rosenberg, owner of a building at 1118 Irwin Street, will ask permission to remodel it for a dental office, and a architectural approval is also sought by Ritter and Oakley for a five-unit apartment house at 4 Welch Street.

Use permits for fences are being sought by three applicants.

Young Smokers Land In Custody

When a San Anselmo policeman became suspicious of an 18-year-old youth and his juvenile companion smoking a hand-made cigarette Friday, he arrested them for possession of marijuana.

Richard Edward Grant, 18, no known address, was booked into Marin County Jail on suspicion of possession of marijuana and contributing to the delinquency of a minor, with bail set at $500. He is to appear at 1:30 p.m. Monday in Marin Municipal Court.

His companion, a 15-year-old boy, was cited to juvenile authorities, according to San Anselmo police.

Patrolman B. C. Davis saw the two standing on the corner of San Anselmo and Lansdale avenues at 3:05 p.m., smoking a hand-made cigarette. They dropped it when he approached, but he picked it up. It was filled with a substance thought to be marijuana, police said.

Why Can't You Control Your Memory?

A noted publisher in Chicago reports there is a simple technique for acquiring a powerful memory which can pay you real dividends in both business and social advancement and works like magic to give you added poise, necessary self-confidence and greater popularity.

According to this publisher, many people do not realize how much they could influence others simply by remembering accurately everything they see, hear, or read. Whether in business, at social functions or even in casual conversations with new acquaintances, there are ways in which you can dominate each situation by your ability to remember.

To acquaint the readers of this paper with the easy-to-follow rules for developing skill in remembering anything you choose to remember, the publishers have printed full details of their self-training method in a new booklet, "Adventures in Memory," which will be mailed free to anyone who requests it. No obligation. Send your name, address, and zip code to: Memory Studies, 835 Diversey Pkwy., Dept. 310-611, Chicago, Ill. 60614. A postcard will do.

Siamese Twins Off Danger List

JOHANNESBURG (UPI) — Doctors today removed from the danger list Siamese twin girls separated at the head in historic surgery and announced each baby born Oct. 6 is learning to live alone.

Shirley and Catherine O'Hara, three months old, had been on the danger list at Johannesburg Children's Hospital since doctors Saturday performed what they call the world's first successful operation severing Siamese twins at the head.

The doctors said today both girls were enjoying the sensation of moving their heads from side to side independently.

As if to show their joy, both Shirley and Catherine were crying loudly when hungry, hospital staff said.

Youths Arrested In Car Looting

Three young men have been arrested in the burglary of an electric typewriter and other items from the parked auto of Arvina Pearl Fraser, 908 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael.

San Rafael police said Mrs. Fraser's car, parked at Nye Street and Mission Avenue, was broken into and looted of the typewriter, two blankets, three rings and bedspread last Thursday.

The suspects, said police, were arrested in San Francisco Friday when they attempted to pawn the typewriter. Michael E. Gilliam, 19, of 264 Coleman Drive, San Rafael, and Eric Christiansen, 19-year-old Marine from Camp Pendleton, were booked in county jail on grand theft and burglary charges. Neil Hoskins, 18, of 362 Irwin Street, San Rafael, was retained by San Francisco police in another case.

Progress Report Due

A progress report on the new school in Lagunitas School District will be heard at the board meeting today at 7:30 p.m. at Lagunitas School.

Attendance Areas On Tap In Novato

Attendance areas for junior and senior high school students in the 1968-69 year will be outlined by the Novato Unified School District board at 8 p.m. today in the administration building.

The district will have two high schools and three junior high schools next school year. The board must decide attendance boundaries.

The board will consider changing the name of the Continuation High School to the North Marin High School.

Other items to come before the board include bids on science materials and equipment, a student teaching agreement with Sonoma State College, a request for the use of school buses by the city recreation department and a building program.

Dog Twice Robbed Of Green Sweaters

Raymond J. Mullen of 21 Oak Knoll Drive, Kentfield, reported to the sheriff's office that he has a very small, aged dog that he garbs with a Kelly green dog sweater when he puts it out for a walk.

The other evening, the dog returned without its sweater. It was the second time recently that someone has stolen the dog's sweater while it was out for a walk, Mullen reported.

Lagunitas Candle Shop Is Hit By $6,500 Blaze

A Lagunitas candle shop, formerly used as a summer camp mess hall, was ruined by fire Saturday night.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom estimated damage at $6,500. The cause was undetermined.

The wooden building, on Arroyo Road, was a mess hall for the former Camp Lagunitas, for children, Bloom said.

The building, owned by Mrs. Olga Barbano of Fairfax, has been used by a group making candles, the chief said.

The building was unoccupied when the fire was reported at 7:55 p.m., county firemen said. Gordon Adams, Joseph Yeaton, Chapman Rose and Michael Godske were listed as the renters.

Writer Trio Is Accused Of Soviet Overthrow Try

MOSCOW (AP) — The three male defendants in a Moscow literary trial were accused today of working for a foreign emigre group devoted to the overthrow of the Soviet government, Soviet sources said.

The accusation was made in the prosecutor's opening remarks at a closed trial in Moscow city courthouse. The prosecutor said Alexander Ginsburg, 31, Yuri Galanskov, 28, and Alexei Dobrovolsky had contacts with NTS, an organization of Russians living abroad whose Russian initials stand for Popular Labor Alliance. The Soviet government has warned its people against having anything to do with it. Also on trial is Vera Lashkova, a typist.

Dobrovolsky and Miss Lashkova, admitted the charges in the morning session of the trial, the Soviet sources said.

It was impossible to obtain complete information on the proceedings because Western correspondents were refused entry and Soviet news media maintained silence.

Shortly after the trial began, about 50 relatives and friends staged a silent protest on the sidewalk outside the courthouse. They had been turned away. After about 15 minutes in the snow and cold, they disbanded.

Later, Galanskov's wife, father, mother and sister were permitted to enter the courtroom, along with Ginsburg's fiancee, Natalia Ginsburg, the tiny gray-haired mother of the main defendant, was barred.

The four young literary figures were charged under a law prohibiting anti-Soviet agitation and propaganda. It carries a maximum penalty of seven years at hard labor.

The linking of the three with NTS came as a surprise. This shadowy organization, with headquarters in Paris, figured in the 1965 trial of Englishman Gerald Brooke and the 1967 trial of West German student Volker Schaffhauser. They both got stiff sentences on a charge of smuggling NTS material into this country.

Daughter Of Heiress Safe In London

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Socialite Dolly Fritz Cope's daughter is safe in London, Mrs. Cope's husband, Newton Cope, told the Associated Press Sunday.

But the 4-year-old Isabelle has been taken into hiding by her father, Donald MacMasters, who has been charged with a British friend with kidnaping, said Cope. Warrants have been issued here for their arrest.

Cope said "we have been in communication with a British attorney. He said a man who said he was D. R. Higgins, a London private detective, had told him he had aided MacMasters in taking Isabelle out of the country."

A slender young man took Isabelle from her exclusive kindergarten class last Friday. Police said he and the little girl were reported seen at the San Francisco International Airport shortly afterward.

Last February MacMasters took Isabelle and her sister Marguerite, 5, and vanished. A month later the children were turned over by MacMasters to Mrs. Cope at Campeche on Mexico's Yucatan peninsula.

Drunken Driving Fines For Six, Jail For Two

Six men were sentenced in Marin Municipal Court Friday for drunken driving, with two drawing jail sentences.

Paul Lloyd Stuenkel Jr. of San Francisco was sentenced to five days in jail, fined $289 and placed on a year of probation. Sausalito police arrested him Sept. 19 on Bridgeway. He had a prior conviction for the same offense.

Robert Mobley, 47, of 137 Canal Street, San Rafael, was fined $174 and placed on six months probation. California Highway Patrol arrested him Oct. 7.

James L. Brown, 44, of Hamilton Air Force Base, arrested by the California Highway Patrol on a frontage road at Ignacio early New Year's Day, was fined $115 and placed on six months probation.

Joseph Lester Uren, 64, of 602 Humboldt, Sausalito, was sentenced to five days in jail, fined $189 and placed on a years' probation. He had a prior drunken driving conviction when the CHP arrested him on Highway 101 last July 30.

Marion Francis Brown, 54, of 255 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley, was given a 10-day suspended jail sentence, fined $174 and placed on year's probation.

Leslie Hamilton Stocker of 1203 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, was given a 10-day suspended sentence and a year's probation.

College Students Elect Officers

Results of the student body officers election held Friday afternoon were announced at the awards and installation banquet in the College Center at the Kentfield campus last night. Tuttle has held the office of ASCOM treasurer this semester.

Vice president-elect is Elizabeth Johnson of San Rafael, who has served as public relations commissioner this semester.

Other officers elected were: Patrick Blake of San Rafael, College Center commissioner; David Long of Mill Valley, treasurer; Michael Albaugh, public relations commissioner, and Harry Gilbert, spirit and athletics commissioner, both of San Anselmo.

Chlorine Bids Due

Bids for a chlorine contract will be considered by the Tiburon Sanitary District Board today at 7:30 p.m. at the treatment plant, Mar West Street and Paradise Drive.

Tiburon Woman Gets Probation

Bertha Elizabeth Bedillion, 47, of 855 Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon, was fined $115 in Marin Municipal Court Friday for drunken driving.

In addition, her driver license was suspended for six months, a suspended $250 fine imposed, and she was placed on six months probation.

Mrs. Bedillion was originally charged with felony drunken driving after her car collided Aug. 30 on Tiburon Boulevard with one driven by Belvedere Policeman Duffy L. Midyett, who was chasing a speeder. Midyett suffered multiple scrapes and bruises. Mrs. Bedillion was hospitalized with an injured arm and cut scalp.

Two Plead Guilty To Cycle Theft

William Henry Magnusen of Novato and John William Cornelius of San Rafael pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court Friday to petty theft charges arising out of the theft of a Honda motorcycle in San Carlos.

Magnusen, of 545 Arthur Street, and Cornelius, of 36 Bonnie Banks Way, had possession of the cycle in January. They were originally charged with receiving stolen property, a felony, but the charge was reduced yesterday.

Magnusen is to appear in Municipal Court Friday for sentencing. Cornelius is to appear Feb. 2 for sentencing.

Only a short time ago the students in this Reading Dynamics class read as slowly, perhaps even slower, than you do right now. As you can see, their beginning reading speeds were well within the national average of 250-400 words per minute. Their dynamically increased reading rates more than exceeded the Reading Dynamics Institute's firm Performance Warranty to increase a student's reading efficiency by at least three times.

Such exceptional achievement is common because most Reading Dynamics graduates increase their reading speeds three to ten times. In fact, Mrs. Elizabeth Burke (No. 1 in the class picture) now reads almost ten times faster than before she took the course. And since the Institute's index of reading efficiency includes both speed and comprehension, even at 2,675 words per minute, Mrs. Burke reads without skipping or skimming; with good understanding, great enjoyment and excellent recall.

What exactly is Reading Dynamics?

Reading Dynamics is the remarkable educational breakthrough that teaches people to read several times faster while retaining good comprehension and pleasure. The method was discovered in 1945 by Evelyn Wood while she was doing graduate work at the University of Utah. Inspired by a professor who read her term paper at the amazing speed of 6,000 words per minute, Mrs. Wood spent the next 12 years developing the principles that are the basis for the definitive rapid reading method in the world today—Reading Dynamics.

You established your slow reading habits as a child when you were taught to "hear" and mentally "say" each word you read. When you acquire the skill of Reading Dynamics, you will be able to understand and enjoy what you read free from this cumbersome, time consuming, eye-to-ear-to-mind communication.

Your reading patterns will be re-routed to the shortest distance between two points—from your eye direct to your mind. You'll stop reading with your ears. With no auditory drag to restrict you to one-word-at-a-time reading, you'll absorb meaningful thought patterns, concepts, ideas and emotions in large chunks. Not only will you be able to read at vastly increased speeds, you will also develop a greater sensitivity to literary values and a heightened ability to retain and recall material in fine detail long after you've read it.

How will Reading Dynamics be taught to me?

Without machines; with the skills of instructors, most of whom hold master's degrees before undertaking 5 months of intensive training that prepares them to conduct the eight 3-hour sessions that make up the Reading Dynamics course.

Each weekly class meeting is a combination of lecture, demonstration, practice drills and specially developed speed and comprehension tests. Besides giving you personal, weekly "progress reports," these tests enable your teacher to immediately catch and correct any problems you may be encountering. Since classes are limited in size, as pictured above, there's ample time for such invaluable personal attention and private counseling.

Is there any homework?

Throughout the entire course you will be expected to practice dynamic reading every day. For a few weeks the going will be pretty tough, but like establishing any worthwhile, lifelong habit, the end more than justifies your efforts.

Reading Dynamics really works. But not overnight and not without a lot of cooperation on your part. It's no cinch to part with the slow reading habits you've had all your life, but anyone who honestly wants to is perfectly capable of doing so.

Specifically, what does the course include?

After your beginning speed and comprehension have been thoroughly tested and measured, you devote your first four classes to acquiring basic, fundamental skills and increasing your speed. Your last four classes show you how to apply these basic skills and your increased speed to the dynamic reading of everything from newspapers, magazines and novels to the most complex business and scientific materials.

Your tuition covers all workbooks and materials plus a lifetime membership that gives you free access to hundreds of Reading Dynamics classrooms around the country, if you wish to concentrate on building your new reading skills to an even higher level.

O.K. I'm almost convinced, What do I do now?

Make us prove that Reading Dynamics is everything we say it is and more. Bring all your doubts to a free Reading Dynamics Demonstration where: YOU will watch a READING DYNAMICS GRADUATE READ AT AMAZING SPEEDS from a book he has never seen before—then tell in detail what he has read—YOU will see a documentary film with impressive testimonials from Washington Congressmen who have taken the Reading Dynamics course—YOU will take a personal, self-scoring test to determine your present level of reading attainment—YOU will hear an intriguing, illustrated lecture on the techniques and rewards of Reading Dynamics—YOU will join the audience in asking candid questions about this efficient and effective way to read—YOU will receive a complete portfolio of informative data covering every aspect of the Reading Dynamics curriculum.

The Demonstration is entirely free. You can leave as anonymously as you enter with absolutely no obligation except, of course, your first obligation, which is to yourself—to attend.

Come to a Free Demonstration. You may win a free scholarship.

WE SEW SEATS

Car seats. With split seams.
For example . . . the little VW is a mighty fine car. It's put together by strong mechanics. They have contests to see who can tighten the bolts best. They never come apart. Except at the seams. We sew them up. With dacron thread. And they never come apart! (Sam, incidentally, pioneered the use of dacron thread in the automotive field in Marin. Just one of our many firsts.)
We sew seams for Fords, Chevs, and Plymouths, TRs, MGAs, and 'Alfas. And many more, too. We also install seat covers, auto glass and convertible tops, carpets, headrests and armrests. And many more.
Stop in today and show us your seam problem. Or glass breakage.

Humanities, Arts In YWCA Classes

Eight new classes in the arts, language and discussion are offered by the Young Women's Christian Association at churches and agency centers throughout the county. Classes begin the week of Jan. 15, and registration is now open and will close Friday.

The Marinwood Community Center on Miller Creek Road in San Rafael will be the setting for the American Short Stories discussion Wednesdays at 10 a.m. Leading the class will be George Hewitt of Berkeley, who studied at Fresno State College and Stanford University. Twentieth century social, political, moral and psychological attitudes of America will be covered.

Practical German will be a direct approach to that language for those who plan to travel or live on the European continent. Mr. Hewitt, who studied German at Fresno State and taught in Vienna, will teach this class Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m. at the Marinwood Community Center.

Social criticism in American Literature will be studied through plays and novels, with discussion encouraged. Mr. Hewitt teaches this course Thursdays at 10 a.m. at Christ Presbyterian Church in Terra Linda.

Primitive spinning and weaving will be taught by Robert J. Harris of Berkeley. Mr. Harris, who has developed his own materials and dyes, will cover hand spinning of different fibers, dyes, and methods of setting up frame looms. This class will meet Thursdays at 9:30 a.m. at Christ Presbyterian Church.

Beginning knitting will be taught Mondays at 1 p.m. at the YWCA by Mrs. David Dumas of Sausalito. Mrs. Dumas taught knitting for five years at the YWCA in Lewiston, Idaho, and has been knitting since she was five years old.

Introduction to classic guitar will include note reading, basic music knowledge, right and left hand technique. Mrs. Albert Garvey teaches this course Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael. Mrs. Garvey studied with guitarists in Spain.

Maximilian Spurlock of San Francisco has combined his memory and reading courses into one to be taught at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul's church, for those who forget names or read slowly.

Musical kindergarten will be presented by Miss Jeanne Massey of the Marin Country Day School faculty at the First Methodist Church in San Rafael. Four and five year olds will meet at 10 a.m. Saturdays. Primary Piano for six and seven year olds will meet at 11 a.m. Miss Massey has taught children since her graduation from Temple University, and plans to introduce musical notation, pitch, rhythm and beginning work with musical instruments.

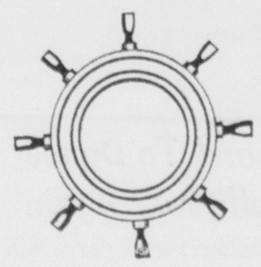
Several other classes in these and other areas are again available at various locations.

Cecilia Soper, Emory Buckner Married At The Bird Cage

Mrs. Cecilia Soper of Auburn became the bride of Emory Buckner of Sacramento at noon Saturday in a ceremony held aboard Mr. Buckner's yacht Pela. The Pela and several other motor boats filled with friends left Loch Lomond Yacht Club at 11 a.m. and cruised to the Bird Cage, the marker at the end of the San Rafael Channel in the Bay, where the wedding took place.

The other boats circled the Pela and the sun broke through the clouds as the Rev. Rowland Chandler, of Christ the Victor Lutheran Church in Fairfax, married the couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her son-in-law Fred Griffith, chose a navy blue knit nautical suit with white buttons. Her red roses and white carnations completed the color scheme.



Her daughter Elizabeth Soper of San Francisco served as maid of honor, also dressed in navy blue. Best man was Albert Moffat of Fairfax, commodore of the Loch Lomond Yacht Club. Brenda McIvor of San Anselmo played a portable organ on the fantail.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Proncia. She has two other daughters, Mrs. Fred Griffith of San Francisco and Mrs. James Pugh of Kentfield.

Mr. Buckner is the son of Mrs. Ray Ferguson of Sacramento and the late Col. Edwin J. Buckner. His brother is Marshall Buckner of San Rafael.

After the wedding, the boats sailed back to the club, where the reception took place. After a wedding trip to Southern California and points south, the couple will live aboard the Pela.

Among the boats in attendance were Jack Regan's Serendipity, Bill Malin's sailboat Tia, Richard McDonald's Rigstad, Carl Conradi's Malahini and the Lady Fairfax, owned by the best man and skippered by Bob Bohanna of Terra Linda. Al Miller skippered the Pela.

ON THE AGENDA

A Light Show For The Ladies And Psychedelic Knights On Saturday

Highlighting the annual Mount Carmel Parish dinner dance on Saturday at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley will be a light show featuring a kaleidoscope of color, produced by Mrs. Robert Gaskill. In keeping with the theme of the light show are invitations reading "The ladies of the court and the psychedelic knights present an assault upon the senses."

The semi-formal event traditionally presented by Mount Carmel Women's Club will be co-sponsored by the Southern Marin Knights of Columbus. Cocktails will be served at 7 p.m., followed by a buffet dinner and dancing.

Co-chairman are Mrs. Daniel K. Beswick Jr. and Dr. Francis Yanni. Committees for the women's club are Mesdames James Rick, invitations; Richard Young, decorations; Robert Gaskill, special lighting; Charles Norton, greeting committee; and George Monardo and Manuel Gomez, reservations.

Assisting Dr. Yanni with the buffet will be Joseph Curran. Refreshments committee is headed by Messrs. James Conley, Edward Walsh, Charles Jarboe and Allen Mills.

THE JOINT P-TA of the Kentfield School District will hold the first of three joint meetings on Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. at Wolfe Grade School. The topic will be "Is My Child Getting the Education I'm Paying For?"

Anthony G. Bacich, Kentfield School District superintendent, will moderate a panel of board of trustees members Lawrence Goldberg, Donald Elsener, Kenneth Treganowen, Mrs. Mary Bingham and J. R. B. Ellis.

Questions on school expenses and personnel policies sent to PT-A presidents of Kent School, Wolfe Grade School, and Greenbrae School have been organized and will be submitted to the panel for discussion.

OFFICERS FOR 1968 of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley are Mesdames Gerald Frank, president; Dudley S. Hubbard, vice president; William E. Cullen, treasurer; all of Mill Valley, and Mrs. Kenneth W. Kew of Tiburon, recording secretary.

EVENING CLASSES for those who want to learn or brush up on bridge will begin tomorrow night at the Northgate Building at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

Cleone Myers of Kentfield, instructor, announced that the classes will run for eight Tuesdays, from 8 to 10 p.m. The classes are open to both men and women, beginners, intermediate or advanced players, so anyone may try their hand.

MRS. CALVIN TERWILLIGER of Mill Valley, noted for her great energy and interest in Marin's natural beauty, will speak on "Discovering Marin" at the Retired Officers Wives Club luncheon Jan. 17. The meeting will be held at Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Reservations committee are Mesdames Kenneth Coleman and Ralph Schooling, San Rafael; Henry Beadle and Roy Frye, Novato; Edward Winsor, Tiburon and Harry Newhall, Mill Valley.

A SPAGHETTI feed for eighth grade students, faculty and their wives will be given by Vallecito School Parent-Teacher Association mothers on Friday. Theme will be "Winterish" with a band, the Standard Railroad Bean Bag, playing "music to eat spaghetti by." The mothers promise "cupcakes like mother used to bake" and ice cream along with the Italian fare, with the whole thing set for 6:30 p.m.

THE WORK of the Marin Foundation, which provides a group home in San Rafael for young women in need of temporary shelter and guidance, will be discussed by Mrs. Anna Marie Long at the luncheon to be given by the United Presbyterian Women at Westminister Church, Tiburon, at noon on Jan. 16.

Mrs. Long is executive secretary of the Marin Foundation and director of the Marin Foundation Group Home. She is a graduate of the University of California and holds a diploma from the Academy of Certified Social Workers. Her activities include the Young Women's Christian Association, Family Service Agency and California Youth Authority.

Mrs. Frank MacDonald is hospitality chaiman, and Mrs. Milton L. Stannard Jr. is program chairman.

GIRL SCOUTS from three Marin troops provided 1968's first youthful volunteer workers for the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn., reports Mrs. Charles Banfield, Christmas Seal campaign chairman. Troop 63 of Mill Valley's Our Lady of Mt. Carmel School worked after classes affixing address labels to several thousand reminders to make Christmas Seal donations. The girls, aged 9 to 11, were working toward ther Community Service merit badges.

LEARN THE PROFESSIONAL art of icing cakes by taking lessons in cake decorating offered by the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Department. Classes are being offered in beginning and intermediate cake decorating at the Community Recreation Center, Second and Brooks streets. Pre-registration is required and will be held at the center of Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. for both classes. The lessons will start the following week with beginning class on Wednesday and intermediate class on Thursday. Classes are limited to 10 students, says the instructor, Mrs. Jean Heacox.

ON THE AGENDA is the Marin Women Sections's new column to keep readers up-to-date on women's organization news and activities and the people behind them. Press chairmen may submit club news to their nearest I-J office — San Rafael, Novato, Mill Valley and Tiburon — in advance of upcoming events.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Party Just For Fun To Thank Husbands

By MOLLY MARIN

It was a party just for fun when the Ross Guild members of the Boyd Museum invited their husbands to a cocktail gathering Saturday as a "thank you" for their help at the guild's annual ski swap held in October. The members and their husbands, numbering some 60 people, gathered at the Webster Otis home in Ross, where Mrs. James Tassley had used a decor of old ski boots and appropriate motifs for the party. Mrs. Jerrol Flood designed special invitations, and Mrs. Robert C. Taylor was party chairman. Mrs. Albert Seidel is the new guild president.

MRS. LAWRENCE MOREL of Mazatlan, Mex., was honoreed at a cocktail party and dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Marsh in the Marin Country Club Estates Wednesday evening. Mrs. Morel has been a house guest at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Marsh in Mill Valley during the holidays.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES A. SULLIVAN will entertain at their second large holiday party tomorrow at their home in the Marin Country Club Estates. They have invited 100 friends living in the Bay Area including Jim's Army friends and Kay's teacher friends to the cocktail gathering.

HOME IN BELVEDERE after traveling in Europe are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Elliott. They visited the coast of Portugal, Lisbon, Madeira, the Canary Islands, Las Palmas, Casablanca, the coast of Spain, Madrid, Mallorca, Barcelona, Rome and London. A high spot was visiting both Malta and Gibraltar. The Elliotts stayed in London, where they saw family members, including Mrs. Elliott's son, Anthony H. White, who has been a frequent visitor to Belvedere. They also spent a week in Kent with relatives.

FROM "SHORTS to wool slacks" in a day was the way Mrs. Frank McGill explained the change in climate on their vacation. Mr. and Mrs. McGill returned to their home in Loma Verde last Friday morn-

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

She Taught Husband To Dance But Now Is A Wallflower Again

DEAR HELEN:

We went to my husband's office Christmas party. The band was great, food good, but I sure didn't enjoy myself.

After scrimping to buy a new dress and spending hours in the beauty shop, I ended up a wallflower again, while my husband flitted from flower to flower, giving all the other wives the pleasure of his company on the dance floor. Some of the husbands asked me, but still I sat more than I danced.

Helen, six years ago when we married, my husband couldn't get across the floor without tripping himself. I taught that man everything about dancing, from waltzes to the watusi. At that time I really preferred other partners, but now he's my favorite. And now he says I can't dance correctly.

Andy suggestions? — MRS. B.

DEAR MRS. B:

One question: Back in your husband's four-footed days, did you leave him stranded while you danced with those preferred partners? If so, you're learning how the shoe feels on the other foot.

Another question: Do you tend to lead? A teacher often does, especially when the pupil is her husband.

Even if the answers are yes, your husband won't win a gold cup for etiquette. He may be winning the title of show-off among the men. Other males usually resent a nimble-toed flower-flitter. That might be the reason they don't ask you to dance. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I have been doing housework at a home here for three years, and feel I should have a raise. These people have plenty of money and are well pleased with my work. Others earn more than the $1.50 an hour they pay me. They're nice to me otherwise, but how do I ask for a raise? — HARDWORKING GIRL.

DEAR HWG:

Why not line up a better-paying job? Good houseworkers are as scarce as wood ranges these days, so that shouldn't be hard. Then tell your present employers you'd rather stay on with them, but you just can't afford to. — H.

P.S. I'll wager they've had several cost of living raises in three years. If they can't share, they don't deserve your loyalty. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

You said recently that when you receive a letter signed Mary Jones with no clue as to whether the writer is married or single, you address her as Dear Mrs. Jones. Wrong! A woman is Miss unless she states otherwise. — ETIQUETTE OBSERVING SECRETARY

DEAR OBSERVING:

You get an A for etiquette, but an F for observing. Please reread my column, if you still have it. I suggested Miss/Mrs. Jones be addressed as Dear Ms. Jones to cover both possibilities. — H.

DEAR MS. BOTTEL:

You will want to know that the use of "Ms." has been recommended in secretarial training books for some years. I quote from the Standard Handbook for Secretaries: "If in doubt about Miss or Mrs. use Miss or Ms. (meaning either Miss or Mrs.)" —CLAUDIA GARVEY, McGraw-HILL BOOK COMPANY.

DEAR MS. GARVEY:

Thank you for the pointer. But why don't more secretaries swing to "Ms.?" — H.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Now Is The Time To Plan For Next Christmas' Bills

By MERCEDES WOOD
Trade Practice Consultant

Have Christmas bills wrecked your budget and put your finances out of kilter? It happens to most of us one time or another.

But there is a way to avoid these first of the year doldrums. If you would like to be rid of them from now on, this is the day to begin.

Face the facts about how much Christmas costs. It is definitely more than the amount you spend for gifts. It is even more than the amount you spend for gifts, decorations, Christmas cards. How much was it really in 1967?

The only way to find out is to write it all down. Make a list of all the extra expenses during the holiday season. This includes the gifts, decorations, cards, and stamps of course.

IT ALSO INCLUDES some "hidden costs" such as the extra food we all buy at this season. Remember those fruit cakes you made in November, the candy (or whatever) you made for the bazaar?

How much did you spend for extra dairy products, extra baby sitters, hairdos, parties — planned or spontaneous? How much did you spend for extra gasoline to take care of that extra tripping around most of us do at this season?

What about the new dress you bought to wear to the Christmas festivities? How much did the New Year's Eve celebration cost? All of these should be on your cost sheet since all are part of the holiday expense.

WHEN YOU ARE SURE you have listed every extra expense incurred by Christmas or the holiday season, add it up and divide by 12. This is the amount you should provide in your monthly budget or spending plan for Christmas. Christmas expense is "extra" — but it is regular and should be spread out over the whole year.

Set this amount aside each month for the regular, extra expense of Christmas. Then you won't have those January jitters when the bills roll in. If the cost of your Christmas was too high, start now to find where and how you can reduce it. Decide which are the least important extras and eliminate them.

To know where your money is going, and decide whether that is where you want it to go, is the basic principle of all planned spending, money management, and smart shopping.

RETURN OF THE BELT AND SHIRT

Craemer-Murphy Vows Exchanged

Linda Leigh Murphy and Justus Theodore Craemer were united in marriage at the Protestant Chapel 1, Hamilton Air Force Base on Saturday. Chaplain Paul D. Motzer performed the ceremony.

Linda, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy of Novato, wore a white full length lace coat dress with attached train. Her sister, Cherita Murphy of Novato, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Jan Craemer, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Donald Ludlow of Simi, a sister of the bride. The attendants wore floor length gowns of moss green velvet. Angela O'Neill of Petaluma was flower girl and Charles Ludlow was ringbearer.

Gordon Nelson of San Anselmo was best man and Jeffery Craemer, brother of the bridegroom, and Frank T. Shubert Jr. of Corcoran were ushers.

A reception was held at Wild Horse Valley Clubhouse in Novato.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Craemer of Greenbrae are the parents of the bridegroom. Mr. Craemer is editor and co-publisher of the Independent-Journal. The bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. Justus Craemer of San Rafael and Mrs. Theo Reuter of Santa Ana.

The bride was graduated from Novato High School and College of Marin. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy of Calistoga and Henry Dozier of Sunnyvale.

The bridegroom was graduated from Redwood High School and College of Marin. He is serving in the Air Force and will be stationed at Shreveport, La., where the couple will live.

CONCERT REVIEW

Chamber Music, Two-Way Benefit

By MAYBELLE SPECKMAN

Last night's chamber music concert at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley was a two-way benefit — for the emergency relief fund of the San Francisco Symphony musicians and for Marin music lovers.

Most of the performers, also Marin residents, had been heard here before, but never in more ingratiating combinations.

LARGE AUDIENCE

Sponsored by the Homestead Valley Improvement Club, which donated the use of the hall, the concert drew a large audience.

Major works on the program, which opened on an exhilarating note with a fanfare for trumpets played by Donald Reinberg, Edward Haug and Chris Bogios, were Beethoven's Septet in B Flat Major, Opus 20, and Brahm's Sextet in B Flat Major, Opus 18.

In both of these, the assured leadership of Charles Meacham's first violin emphasized the fact that he is as fine a master of this instrument as one is likely to hear in the Bay Area.

FINE BLEND

The septet was notable for fine blend, balance and precision of execution. Those performing with Meacham were Rolf Persinger, viola; Jean Mitchell, cello; Carl Modell, double bass; Philip Fath, clarinet; Raymond Ojeda, bassoon, and Jeremy Merrill, French horn.

Nearly as good in the same respects was the Brahms Sextet, in which the players with Meacham and Jean Mitchell were Michael Gerling, violin; Eugene Winkler, cello, and David Smiley and Lucien Mitchell, violas.

Strong viola playing, not heard often, was a feature of this concert, since it was an important part not only of the sextet and septet but of a duo for viola and cello by Walter Piston, performed by the husband-wife team of Lucien and Jean Mitchell, and of another duo, "Spring Sea" by Michio Miyagi, played by the husband-wife team of Yuriko and David Smiley on the koto and viola respectively.

PERFECT MARCH

The Mitchells make a perfectly matched pair with joint rhythmic and expressive sense. The dialogue between their instruments was very skillfully handled in timing and their tone was rich and warm, especially in the lyrical andante serena movement.

The modern sound of this cello-viola duo made a good contrast with the ensemble numbers, as did the piquant tonal blend of the koto and viola in "Spring Sea."

Dump-Park Idea To Get Hearing

A proposal to create a 250-acre park in east Corte Madera marshland through cut-and-fill dump operations will be discussed by the Marin County Parks and Recreation commissioners Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the planning commission chamber of the Civic Center.

Pierre W. Joske, county director of parks and recreation, proposed the park, which would be financed by fees collected from dumping. Joske will make a presentation of his plan, as he has done before the Corte Madera Town Council.

Other items on the agenda include: a report on strip mercury mining operations on Salmon Creek Road between Hicks Valley and Marshall, progress report on Bolinas Lagoon siltation studies, and a six-year capital improvement program for county parks and recreation.

Suede Coats Taken

Thieves took two suede coats, valued at $116, from a rack and walked out of Trixie of Marin, a woman's clothing store, at 936 B Street, Friday evening, San Rafael police reported.

Catholic Nun Now Screaming Eagle

KENTON, Ohio (AP) — Sister Carole Brown, a teacher at St. Anthony's School, is now a "Screaming Eagle," an honorary paratrooper of the 1st Brigade, 101st Airborne Division.

Gen. John D. Mathieson, commander of the 101st, sent Sister Carole her wings in recognition of her work in the "Little League of Green Beret," a group of youngsters she formed to pray for servicemen, write letters and send packages to soldiers in Vietnam.

QUEBEC (AP) — Louis St. Laurent, former Canadian prime minister, was reported in satisfactory condition last night after suffering a fractured hip earlier in the day.

NOW TEACHING

Jazz Pianist Sees 'No Room At Top'

By ROSS DAVIS

A jazz pianist who has accompanied such top singers as Mel Torme and the late Dinah Washington is teaching a jazz keyboard harmony class in the College of Marin adult school.

Although the pianist, Charles R. Whittington, believes his Wednesday evening class can vastly gain from jazz instruction, he doubts that any of the students — or any other new pianist — is likely to gain national prominence in that field.

"The established artists, like George Shearing, will continue to dominate the field," said Whittington. "I don't think there is any room for any more top jazz pianist to come into prominence."

Whittington said attendance is poor at jazz clubs. "There just isn't an audience," he said, but added that an organist with amplifier still is a fair draw.

TEACHES, STUDIES

The 31-year-old teacher, who has special credentials to teach at Marin while studying at Hayward State College for a masters degree in music performance, said too many jazz artists are having to turn to something else to make a living because people aren't turning out to hear live music.

His own reason for leaving the field, however, was the travel it involved. Whittington, who lives in Oakland with his wife, Judy, and their 3-year-old daughter, Heather, said keeping up the traveling pace and being away from home was the main reason he quit.

"It may or may not pay off," said he, "but, meanwhile, your family has to suffer."

From the looks of Whittington's present schedule, however, It's hard to see the difference in whether he's traveling to, say, Las Vegas or not. In addition to beginning his second semester teaching at College of Marin, and studying for his master's, he is teaching full-time music and physical education at Washington Elementary School in Berkeley. He also has 14 private students in jazz piano.

IN SPARE TIME

And, just to fill out the week, he sometimes plays with his own trio (bass, drums, and piano) in San Francisco, and with the "house rhythm section" at the Gold Nugget in Oakland. This, he explained, is a group which backs up name jazz players that are brought in.

Whittington, a soft-spoken man with well-kept goatee and moustache, started his musical career at Santa Monica Junior College in 1956. He also was in a group playing at a Hermosa Beach club.

He later moved to Hollywood clubs, playing professionally and teaching jazz piano to private students. He played piano with a trio accompanying Ernestine Anderson, jazz singer, in Las Vegas in 1960, with blues singer Dinah Washington in Los Angeles in 1961, and with Anita O'Day, jazz singer, in Los Angeles in 1963.

HOPES FOR FUTURE

That same year he was with a five-piece band accompanying Mel Torme for three weeks at the Holiday Inn in Oakland.

Whittington hopes to complete his college training, then teach full-time at that level in addition to keeping up with his own piano and perhaps doing some recording.

LBJ, Eshkol Start Talks On Mideast

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—President Johnson and Prime Minister Levi Eshkol of Israel pledged themselves to the cause of peace yesterday then plunged into intensive talks on ways to solve the Mideast crisis.

"Shalom," greeted Johnson, as Eshkol and his wife stepped from their plane at nearby Randolph AFB while hundreds of Texans looked on and applauded.

In a six-minute exchange of greetings, the President and Prime Minister stressed the word "peace" 11 times. In the warm welcome each also voiced the Hebrew expression for peace—"Shalom," while Israeli and American flags waved side by side in subfreezing temperatures.

Eshkol and his attractive wife, Miriam, planned to depart at 3 p. m. EST today for New York. He is on an Israeli bond tour.

News Is Good For The Skier

The weatherman predicted a few snow flurries in the northern mountains today. Intermittent snow is likely Tuesday in the Mount Shasta-Siskiyou area, and there's a chance of snow Tuesday in the northern Sierra Nevada.

Only three resorts reported at 10 a.m. today to the California State Automobile Association, and they said skiing was good. The report:

Television Taken

Theft of a $200 television set and a bedspread from Edgewater Inn at 1815 Redwood Highway was reported today by Corte Madera police. Officers said two men who checked into a room apparently stole the items Saturday.

Humphrey Tours Land Of The Lion, Giraffe

They saw one of the two pairs of lions in the park — a sight most others who came behind missed.

Humphrey later walked at a near gallop from the hotel to the U.S. Information Agency library, shaking hands and waving to crowds in the street.

At the center, he told the staff their agency "is not to be looked on as a propaganda organization but as a library promoting the culture not only of our country but of others."

Visiting the adjoining U.S. commercial offices he saw exhibits of toys, clothing, and even poker dice.

Noting several U.S. travel posters, Humphrey, who was active in organizing the U.S. Travel Agency, told his aides, "We ought to have travel U.S.A. information over here by the ton. Let's see about that."

Retired Group Seats Officers

Mrs. Elenor Jones of 39 Scenic Road, Fairfax, was installed Saturday as 1968 president of the Marin Chapter, American Association of Retired Persons, at the First Methodist Church of San Rafael.

Mrs. Jones will be serving her third term as president.

Charlotte Cooper of Forest Knolls was installed as vice president, Margaret Weber of Fairfax, secretary; Mavis Axtell of Terra Linda, treasurer, and Betty Nickerson of San Anselmo, Amy Arrington of San Rafael, and Kay Stephenson,

New Convalescent Hospital Will Open Tomorow

Cottage Convalescent Hospital, operating in the building that used to house San Rafael General Hospital, is expected to open tomorrow.

Charles T. Bruce, administrator of the convalescent hospital being operated by the Marin Medical Foundation, said renovations had been completed for the 57-bed facility. The opening awaited a check tomorrow by the Marin County Department of Public Health, he said.

San Rafael General Hospital was closed in May 1966 because of financial difficulties. John K. Taylor, owner of the building, has leased it to the foundation, which also operates Northgate Convalescent Center.

Hearing Handicapped Pupil Help Proposed

Authorization to apply to the State Board of Education for an early education program for hearing handicapped children will be asked of the Marin County Board of Education at its meeting at 8 p.m. today at Loma Alta School in Juvenile Hall by Asst. County Supt. Stanley H. Friese.

The experimental pre-school program would provide special education for deaf and hard-of-hearing children from 18 months to three years old.

Fire Procedures Course Offered

A class on home safety and emergency fire procedures will be offered residents by the Marinwood Fire Department beginning Jan. 18, Chief James W. Cameron said today.

The class will be held at the Marinwood Firehouse on four consecutive Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m.

"We have 13 persons registered and can take up to 30," Cameron said. "The course is for babysitters and for anyone else interested. They should register now either in person or by calling us."

Personnel Policy First On Agenda For Supervisors

A county policy to govern employes-employee relations, drawn up by the Marin County Personnel Commission, will go to the county board of supervisors for approval at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

The policy sets out employee rights, how employees will be represented in negotiations with the county, and procedures for collective bargaining and arbitration.

The personnel director will submit a revised plan for classification and pay of clerical workers, which would require an appropriation of $30,640 from the salary reserve fund.

The supervisors will then consider awarding of bid for construction of the veterans memorial auditorium.

A hearing on the future alignment of Shoreline Highway will be the leadoff topic in the afternoon.

Plans For Year

Agenda for 1968 will be planned at the meeting of Marin Coast Chamber of Commerce tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at Clay's Farm House Inn, Olema. Also on the program will be a description of her Mexican trip by Sharon Joslin.

Ross Feeling Fiscal Pinch

Drastic cutbacks in services provided citizens of Ross will be necessary if the Jan. 23 election to increase the tax rate is not approved, according to a letter sent Ross residents Saturday by the town council.

"Cutting the police patrol from 24 to 12 hours, cutting the street crew to one man and turning off street lights from midnight to sunrise" are three of the alternatives suggested as possibly necessary if the election fails.

Council members also told residents that the rise from $1 to $1.50 per $100 valuation would be the first increase in tax rate in Ross since the town was incorporated in 1908. Members said that working capital of the town has reached a "dangerous low."

Additional expenses are expected in the future, they said, as most town-owned buildings need repair and street and tree work is needed, also.

Council members said that the increase would be 96 cents a month for a property with fair market value of $10,000.

Middle School Director Due To Be Appointed

Appointment of a director for the soon-to-be-built Mill Valley middle school will be recommended to the Mill Valley School District Board tonight by Supt. James Collins.

Collins also will recommend that Aubrey Haan, dean of the school of education at San Francisco State College, be appointed as consultant to the architects for the building of the sixth, seventh and eighth grade school.

The Mill Valley board will meet at 8 p.m. in the Park School.

Collins said he discussed the appointment of a director for the middle school with the board members at a closed meeting Friday night, has an individual in mind for the job, but does not want to reveal his name until Monday night.

Meeting Changed

Date for the quarterly meeting of Sleepy Hollow Homes Association has been moved to Feb. 1 at 8 p.m. in the clubhouse, according to Herbert A. Brauner, president. New officers will be installed.

Lumbering Hint Denied By Company

A partner of a Point Arena lumber company has denied rumors the firm was negotiating to log timber on a privately owned ranch near Point Reyes National Seashore.

Leslie Giacomini of G & L Lumber and Transportation Co. said no negotiations were under way nor was it intended any would be started. "At least, not yet," he added.

Reports reaching the Independent-Journal yesterday had the company cutting up to "25 million board feet" from the 1,800-acre ranch of Mrs. Ethel Righetti of Castro Valley.

The ranch is near Five Brooks, between Bolinas and Olema and lies on the northeast side of Shoreline Highway.

At his office in Point Arena, Giacomini said: "I have had a permit to log any privately owned land in the state for the past 15 years.

"I also have a forestry permit to operate in the Point Arena area and this will do for the time being. If I ever think of going into Marin I would have to get a forestry permit to do so."

Hung Jury Follows Phone Theft Trial

Trial of Wilbur Rodgers, 32, of Los Angeles, accused of burglary of a pay telephone box at Marin General Hospital Nov. 27, 1966, resulted in a hung jury Friday in Superior Court.

A new trial was set for Jan. 22.

EGYPTIAN VISITORS

Three Death Row Felons Eat Again

Three of the 29 Death Row convicts who have been refusing to eat the food at San Quentin Prison changed their minds over the weekend and accepted the meals which are brought to them on trays.

The other 26, some getting along on stocks of candy and other items from the prison canteen, went into the fourth day of their demonstration against the prison diet today.

STEWED PEACHES

The condemned men announced their food strike last Friday with an eight-page, typewritten petition, studded with scornful references to the prison's food.

"The degree of nastiness of the hamburger is paralleled only by the incompetent way it is prepared," said the petition.

Associate Warden James W. L. Park said that the diet of the Death Row inmates is actually better than that of the general population at the prison. They sometimes get two meat entrees, they get milk at every meal and eggs are served for breakfast every morning.

10 YEARS AGO

Park said improvements in the condemned row diet began about 10 years ago.

"At that time a man was on the condemned row only a relatively short period of time," said Park. "We figured they had a limited future and they should be given a little better meals than the rest of the prison population."

Park said that when the food strike began last Friday, prison authorities confiscated a note which was being passed from one Death Row inmate to another. The note writer urged the other inmates to make the food strike a long one.

"The newspapers will be notified the day it starts, and the reasons for it," said the message.

Park, who is in charge of the condemned unit, said he sent a memorandum to the row making no concessions, but declaring the prison would make any possible improvements. The temperature of the water in the ing the name of the Continuation Cold food was one of the complaints.

Marinites Named To Romney Panel

Dr. W. James Dawson, Ross councilman, and Walter F. Kieckhefer, a Kentfield developer, were named today to the executive committee of the Northern California Romney for President Committee.

Dr. Julius Levine, a Hayward physician, was named chairman at the opening of the committee headquarters in Oakland.

Dr. Dawson, 37, an orthodontist proacticing in San Rafael and teaching in the Department of Oral Histology at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco, lives on Fern Hill Avenue.

Auto Is Stolen

Someone broke an office window at Town and Country Motors at 1000 Francisco Boulevard early Friday, took car keys and drove off in a 1958 Volkswagen sedan, San Rafael police reported.

Girl, 16, Tells Of Profiteering In Marijuana

A 16-year-old girl can make more than 200 per cent profit selling marijuana to high school students if she doesn't smoke it all herself, sheriff's deputies have learned.

While checking the home of a 16-year-old Kentfield girl Thursday, Deputy Dennis Shine, Deputy Dist. Atty. Leonard Shaw and Insptr. Charles Prandi found a bag containing about one pound of what appeared to be marijuana.

The girl said she purchased it for $100, and if she sold it all without smoking any herself, she could sell it at $10 "a lid" for a total of $340 and net a profit of $240, deputies reported.

The girl refused to tell where she got the supply, deputies reported.

Shine reported that the trio investigated after getting information that the girl was "involved in the sale of marijuana at Redwood High School."

Tiburon Chamber To Hear Dollar Report

The Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce will hear tomorrow from Carney Campion on the value of the tourist dollar to Tiburon and Marin County.

Campion, general manager and director of the Redwood Empire Association, will speak at the chamber's breakfast meeting at 8 a.m. at Tiburon Lodge.

BRIDGE EXPERT

16-Year-Old Earns Life Master Card

Robert E. Crossley, 16, of Greenbrae, has become Marin County's youngest life master in bridge.

Crossley earned the rating this weekend when he won the required 300 master points in a tournament in Sacramento.

The Bridge Bulletin, a national publication, said Crossley may be the second youngest in the country to achieve life master.

The youth played in the Sacramento tournament with his grandfather, C. F. Crossley Sr. of Palo Alto.

Crossley, third generation of life masters, lives at 15 Via Cheparro. He plays on the basketball team and is president of the junior class at Redwood High School.

His mother, Mrs. Lura Crossley, the first life master in Marin County, is a bridge teacher and director of the Crossley Bridge Club. His brother, David, 19, became a life master at 18.

Crossley began competing in duplicate bridge about four years ago. He helps direct and teach bridge at his mother's bridge club.

Kyle Larson of San Francisco became life master a few days ago at 15, youngest in the nation to achieve that rating. The Bridge Bulletin said a teen-ager in the State of Washington is believed to have earned the rating last year.

Crossley will be 17 Jan. 20.

Sign Ordinance Review Slated

Final review of a revised sign ordinance is scheduled by the Larkspur Planning Commission at 8 p.m. tomorrow at city hall.

The measure would then go to the city council for approval. Also scheduled for consideration is tentative approval of a subdivision map for a 20-acre parcel owned by Belardo Co. of Greenbrae and located in the Bon Air district.

Election of officers for the new year will be held.

Planners Question Route 17 Proposal

Marin County planning commissioners reviewed the Fairfax General Plan today and questioned whether Route 17 should skirt the community as recommended.

The commissioners voted to continue discussion of the plan until the county planning staff completes plan detail.

Commissioner Hugh Dougherty criticized the statement in the general plan that says: "Route 17 (east-west connection between Highway 101 and West Marin should under no circumstances go through the center of Fairfax."

ONE OF OPTIONS

"It seems to me we are removing one of the options on Highway 17," said Dougherty. "I don't know whether this is the time to remove that option."

"You are asking us to adopt something which is still too vague and confusing," Dougherty told the planning staff. He said he wants more precise wording on such items as traffic circulation and the downtown center planning.

Commissioner Margaret Azevedo agreed with Dougherty. She noted that the planning commission had previously agreed to keep all options on Route 17 open.

Commissioner Walter Freitas said he wants the plan to contain written assurance that it is to be used only as a guide, and its application to individual properties would be subject to revision. He warned that too often, when a general plan is adopted, it is applied too rigidly when property owners later bring in development plans.

PEOPLE WANT

Striking Route 17 from downtown Fairfax is something that the people of Fairfax wanted, county planning director Paul C. Zucker pointed out.

"Whether the county wants it or not, there is no way to force the city to accept a freeway," Zucker said.

"The staff and the city of Fairfax had to decide whether we plan Route 17 in or out," said Zucker. "We couldn't do both." He explained that the valley through Fairfax is so narrow that a Route 17 freeway and a downtown center could not coexist.

Four Hurt In Two Crashes On Highway 101

Four persons suffered minor injuries in two crashes within 10 minutes yesterday on a stretch of Highway 101, north of the Waldo Tunnel.

At 10:45 p.m. southbound cars driven by Linnette D. Iliff, 23, of San Francisco, and Florencio M. Gallino, 40, also of San Francisco, collided, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Ten minutes later, while one lane of the highway was still blocked, vehicles driven by Deiter Adam, 29, of 4 Maple Avenue, Kentfield; Jan Doby Benn, 32, of Millbrae, and Betty Jean Soldate, 26, of San Francisco, were involved in a chain-reaction crash. Adam and Betty Soldate refused hospitalization.

Rep. Clausen Asked To Run Again

I-J Special Report

UKIAH — Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District, was urged to seek a fourth term in the House of Representatives in a resolution adopted unanimously Saturday by the First Congressional District Republican Committee, reported committee chairman Gerald E. Misner of San Anselmo.

The committee met here for its biannual meeting.

Clausen's district used to include all of Marin, but under the reapportionment plan adopted last month gy the Legislature, most of central and southern Marin were cut out of his district and added to the San Francisco district of Rupublican William S. Mailliard.

The committee re-elected Misner as general chaiman, Norman B. Livermore Jr. of San Rafael as treasurer and Robert D. Huber of Mill Valley as a member of the executive committee.

Misner said the executive committee will meet in February to plan a district-wide convention in the spring and several "appreciation" dinners and lunches before the June primaries.

Tiburon Youth Arrested In Drugs Possession

A Tiburon youth was arrested Saturday on suspicion of possessing marijuana and dangerous drugs after being found with them in an abandoned railroad building by a Tiburon sheriff's deputy.

Deputy John O. Goff said a citizen told him at 11:30 p.m. about a "strange light" inside the building, on Paradise Drive, east of Main Street.

Inside Goff reported he found Mark Daniel Hurley, 19, of 1808 Centro West, with a 19-year-old youth. On the floor, Goff said, he found a brown paper bag with numerous home-made cigarettes, seeds and what happened to be marijuana.

Goff said he also found a small brown pipe containing vegetation and seeds that looked like marijuana, and some pills suspected of being methedrine, in a match box in Hurley's pockets.

Hurley was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court. Hurley's companion was not charged.

Dinner Dance To Aid Western Weekend

Novato Chamber of Commerce will seek to pay off the 1967 Western Weekend deficit through a fund-raising dinner on Jan. 20 at the Novato Moose Lodge (formerly the Hilltop Restaurant).

Plans call for cocktails at 6 p.m., dinner at 7 p.m., and dancing starting at 9 p.m., Jack Kinney, chamber of commerce president, announced.

Pipe Breaks, Homes Minus Water Today

Ten to 12 homes on Hawthorne Avenue in Santa Venetia were without water for about two hours this morning because of a breakin break in a six-inch cast iron water pipe, the Marin Municipal Water District reported.

The break was discovered yesterday, but service was not interrupted until repairs were made today, said B. G. Grant, administrative engineer. No flooding or property damage occurred, he said.

★ THE SMILING HOUSE
Really! . . . something about THIS house makes you feel so good you just can't help breaking into a big grin. Maybe it's because you can step THRU the shower or could it be TWO living rooms, one for the preacher (it's formal) and one where you can take your socks off (it's informal) or maybe it's because seated in the master bathroom you have a better view of Mt. Tamalpais than most people get from their living rooms! Sure it has bedrooms & baths and it is oak studded, and pool sited and just listed and all those things you always read about for $47,500 in the best part of Greenbrae. But come see it for yourself. COLDWELL, BANKER & COMPANY

SMALL DELIGHT $19,750
And a very large bargain is this 2-bedroom, 1-bath well-cared-for house in convenient San Rafael. Framed by hedges, fence and shade trees, the garden is a horticulturist's dream with terraced rock gardens, fruit trees, lanai and covered patio. This can't last! San Rafael.

WEEPING WILLOW TREE $19,900
in the large level back yard of this 3 bedroom conveniently located house. Large breakfast area in the kitchen and a fireplace in the living room for your cozy winter evenings. Try 10% down. Novato.

COMMUTER'S SPECIAL $29,950
Like the idea of the bus right in front of your house? Or perhaps you're looking for a home with office combination. This house may be the answer to your special needs — with 3 bedrooms, basement, parking area, 2 entrances — all on a large corner lot. San Rafael.

HOME ORCHARD $31,900
The fruit trees growing in the property of this 4-bedroom, 2-bath Eichler will test your ingenuity for turning fruit on the vine into delicacies for your table! While you're thinking, enjoy easy living in a carefree house that's a stone's throw from Northgate shopping and schools. Terra Linda.

STONE WALLS $39,500
Do make a house stand strong, and this solid-walled home is like the rock of Gibraltar! Spacious, airy rooms have high ceilings and views overlooking San Rafael. If you're handy and have a yen to make an older home your personal statement, this close-in property is for you. San Rafael.

ATTENTION: BARGAIN HUNTERS! $39,950
Here's the lowest-priced home with pool in Sleepy Hollow! If you want a quality neighborhood at a bargain price, see this roomy, 3-bedroom, 2½-bath house wrapped around a most pleasant pool and patio. San Anselmo.

DINE IN STYLE $42,000
In the SEPARATE, FORMAL dining room of this well-designed and decorated 3-bedroom, 2-bath Glenwood ranch. Entertain grandly in the inviting, sunken family room with its own cozy fireplace, and come summer, you'll enjoy the pool that's an extra, added attraction. Safe, cul-de-sac street location. San Rafael.

LADY OF SPAIN $42,500

SOMETHING SPECIAL! $58,500
That's what we've found for you in convenient Dominican where you can see this 3-bedroom, 2½-bath traditional ranch with all the amenities, including a formal dining room. Well constructed, handsomely decorated, and the attractive landscaping includes a pool.

A SENSE OF WONDER $63,000
Engulfs you when confronted with the vistas from this house which boasts THE most outstanding site in Los Ranchitos. More than an acre and a half of privacy, level lawns, magnificent old oaks and very possibly the best view of the Civic Center in the bay area surrounds a traditional 3-bedroom, 2-bath ranch with warm paneling in most rooms, and large unfinished area for additional bedrooms, baths, playroom, or you name it. San Rafael.

ADULT ENTERTAINMENT $67,000
Sophisticated couples will like this contemporary home of fine design in Kent Woodlands with an awe-inspiring view. An Orients' influence can be seen in the use of shojis and grasscloth, and th attractive landscaping, which includes a pool, is completely sprinklered. 2 bedrooms, 2 baths, dining room. Kentfield.

CHANGING MOODS $75,000
Of the spectacular view are an extra bonus of this 4-bedroom, 3-bath contemporary home — a hallmark of quality and elegance. The architect has provided for the careful pairing of house with site, and windows capture every nuance of bay and mountain vistas. A separate dining room is perfect for parties. Kentfield.

PRIZE WINNER! $75,000
This 5-bedroom, 3-bath Fairhills home won the AIA-Sunset Magazine award for architectural excellence in 1965, and now it's vacant and ready to move right into! The 2-story living room with its striking fireplace and view will excite you and so will the master suite with den, dressing room and 2nd fireplace. The lowest level is a children's dream with a vinyl-floored playroom that divides into 2 bedrooms. San Rafael.

CONGENIAL $79,500
Habitat for the family that wants a flexible house on more than an acre of land in this desirable area where horses are as welcome as people. Added to the 3 bedrooms and 2 baths is the large guest house with rec. room, bedroom, bath and wet bar — perfect for teens or in-laws. The level yard is completely fenced with lawn, patios, orchard and pool, and one area is a logical setup for a children's riding ring. More than $100,000 has been spent on this property. San Rafael.

CONTRACTORS—DEVELOPERS

18 acres zoned and approved for mobile park. This choice wooded site has over 1000 feet of river frontage with an area suitable for a boat harbor. An old 22 room Victorian mansion with elevator, would be perfect for club house, plus restaurant and bar. A main street with utilities and sewer front the property. A small shopping center and a service station site has been planned on a portion of the 18 acres. Most of the costly engineering plans have already been done, and asking price of $250,000, makes this an exceptional buy.

EXECUTIVE CAR

'67 BUICK

ELECTRA 225

Here's an almost brand-new Electra 225 4-Dr. hardtop that our sales manager has driven during the past six months.

Just over 7,000 miles, but this car still carries the new car Buick warranty of 50,000 miles of 5 years, due to the fact that the purchaser will be the first owner of record with General Motors.

No. 2178 Dec. 18, 26, 1967, Jan. 2, 8, 1968

NOTICE OF TIME AND PLACE OF HEARING IN RE RESOLUTION TO ABANDON PORTIONS OF CERTAIN STREETS IN THE VICINITY OF STATE HIGHWAY 101 AND SHORELINE HIGHWAY, MILL VALLEY, CALIFORNIA

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, did on the 19th day of December, 1967, pass a resolution declaring its intention to abandon portions of certain streets in the vicinity of State Highway 101 and Shoreline Highway, Mill Valley, California, situated in the County of Marin, State of California, and more particularly described as follows:

A. All that portion of Tomales Street lying between Owyhee Street and Humboldt Street, as said streets are shown on the map entitled "Official Map of Sausalito Land and Ferry Company", Rack I, Pull 9, Marin County Records.

B. A strip of land of uniform width of 34.5 feet lying northwesterly of and adjacent to the southeasterly line of Canal Street as shown on the plat entitled "Supplementary Plat of the Grant to the County of Marin, Parcel "A", Chapter 497, Statutes of 1959", as recorded in Can "G", Marin County Records, and lying between the northwesterly projection of the northeasterly line of Parcel Two conveyed from Paul J. Smith, et ux, to the State of California by deed recorded in Book 971 at page 511, Marin County Official Records, and a line 65 feet southwesterly of and parallel to the southwesterly line of the 60 foot right of way conveyed from Sausalito Land and Ferry Company to the North Pacific Coast Railroad Company as recorded in Book "Y" of Deeds at page 127, Marin County Records. Being a portion of Canal Street as shown on said map.

C. All that portion of Coyote Street as shown on the map entitled "Official Map of Sausalito Land and Ferry Company", Rack I, Pull 9, Marin County Records, lying between the southeasterly projection of the northerly line of Parcel Two as described in the deed from Smith to the State of California, Book 971, page 511, Marin County Official Records, and a line 65 feet southwest of and parallel to the southwesterly line of the 60 foot right of way described in the deed from the Sausalito Land and Ferry Company to the North Pacific Coast Railroad Company as recorded in Book "Y" of deeds at page 127, Marin County Records, and also as described in the deed from Robinson to the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Company in Book 148, Page 268, Marin County Records.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that said matter has been set for hearing and will be heard by the Board of Supervisors on the 9th day of January, 1968, at the hour of 3:30 o'clock P.M. of said day in the Chambers of the Board of Supervisors, Civic Center, San Rafel, California, and that all persons interested therein may then and there appear and show cause, if any they have, why said portions of said county highways should not be abandoned.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, COUNTY OF MARIN, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, this 19th day of December, 1967.

/s/ GEO. H. GNOSS,
County Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, County of Marin, State of California

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN
ORDINANCE NO. 1618
AN INTERIM ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN ESTABLISHING FRANK VALLEY INTERIM ZONE, PROHIBITING USES THEREIN PERTAINING TO ADOPTED ZONING ORDINANCE AND PROVIDING THAT SAID ORDINANCE TAKE EFFECT IMMEDIATELY.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1: The Board of Supervisors hereby finds as follows:

(a) The Marin County Planning Department and Marin County Planning Commission have underway general plan and zoning studies in the Frank Valley and intend to pursue such studies leading to possible re-zoning in this area.

(b) Utilization of property within said area in a manner inconsistent with the recommendations of said studies will seriously impede the effectiveness of such plans and zoning regulations in implementation thereof and will impair or prevent such implementation. To protect the public health, safety, and welfare, it is necessary to adopt a temporary interim zoning ordinance, in accordance with provisions of Government Code Section 65858, prohibiting the establishment of any uses in said area which may conflict with said contemplated general plan and zoning proposals.

SECTION 2: All of that real property shown on Exhibit "A", which is attached hereto and made a part thereof, is hereby classified as "Frank Valley Interim Zone."

SECTION 3: Except for existing uses in their present form, no land, building or structure located within the interim zone established hereby, shall hereafter be developed, or used for any purposes unless a use permit is issued therefor, in the manner prescribed in Title 22 of the Marin County Code. Use permits will be issued only upon a determination and finding that said use will not conflict with:

(1) Recommendations contained in general plan studies.
(2) Such zoning ordinances as may be proposed for the area.

SECTION 4: The provisions of Title 22 of the Marin County Code, to the extent that they do not conflict herewith, are incorporated herein as if more fully set forth.

SECTION 5: Any person, firm or corporation, whether principal, agent, employee, or otherwise, violating or causing or permitting the violation of any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars or by imprisonment in the County Jail of said County for a term not exceeding one hundred and eighty (180) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Such person, firm or corporation shall be deemed to be guilty of a separate offense for each and every day during any portion of which any violation of this Ordinance is committed, continued or permitted by such person, firm or corporation, and shall be punishable as herein provided. Any building or structure set up, erected, constructed, altered, enlarged, converted, moved or maintained contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance and/or any use of any land, building or premises established, conducted, operated, or maintained contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance shall be and the same is hereby declared to be unlawful and a public nuisance and the District Attorney of said County shall, upon order of the Board of Supervisors, immediately commence action of proceedings for the abatement and removal and enjoinment thereof in the manner provided by law and shall take such other steps and shall apply to such court or courts as may have jurisdiction to grant such relief as will abate and remove such building or structure and restrain and enjoin any person, firm or corporation from setting up, erecting, building, maintaining or using any property contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance.

SECTION 6: Validity. If any section, sub-section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance. The Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more section, subsection, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared invalid.

SECTION 7: This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency measure and shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its adoption. Within fifteen (15) days after adoption, this ordinance shall be published in the Independent-Journal, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the County of Marin. The conditions constituting such urgency are as follows: Erection, construction, conversion, alteration or moving of certain buildings or structures contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance is deemed to be a menace to the public health, safety, peace and general welfare for the reasons set forth in Section 1 hereof. The immediate operation of this Ordinance is, therefore, necessary to protect the public health, peace, safety, and general welfare.

SECTION 8: This Ordinance shall be of no further force and effect ninety (90) days after the date of adoption hereof, unless extended by the Board of Supervisors in accordance with the provisions of Government Code 65858.

The foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, held on the 2nd day of January 1968 by the following vote, towit:

AYES: Supervisors William A. Gnoss, Peter H. Behr, John F. McInnis, Thomas T. Storer, Ernest N. Kettenhofen.

Trial Slated In Escapers Murder Case

March 26 has been set as trial date in Lake County Superior Court, Lakeport, for two San Quentin Prison inmates who are charged with murder of a Lake County sheriff's deputy last Oct. 11.

Motions for separate trials for John Lynn, 24, of Ventura County and Larry Taylor, 22, of Santa Rosa, were denied Thursday by Judge Robert Winslow of Mendocino County in the Lake County court.

The judge took under submission a motion to separate an Oct. 5 escape charge from the Oct. 11 escape attempt, murder and assault charges.

Taylor and Lynn who with Raymond Pettis of San Diego County, who subsequently committed suicide in his cell at San Quentin, allegedly jumped their guards and tried to escape from a corridor in the Lake County courthouse on Oct. 11.

A deputy's gun was grabbed and a second officer shot to death, according to charges filed.

The convicts were in the court house to answer charges of excape from the Konocti Conservation Camp in Lake County and a robbery, burglary and car theft allegedly occurred while they were at liberty from Sept. 24 to 27.

The will be tried on these charges in Marin County Superior Court. The pair complained that publicity on the murder charges precluded a fair trial in Lake County.

Marin Women Join Congress Peace Visit

A delegation of more than 20 women from Marin County will be in Washington, D.C., Jan. 15 when former Congressman Jeannette Rankin presents a petition asking the Congress act to end the Vietnam war as its first order of business in 1968.

The women are among the estimated 10,000 women from throughout the country who have formed themselves into the "Jeanette Rankin Brigade," named for the first woman to serve in the House of Representatives.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Timing In Breast Cancer Linked To Marriage And Child Bearing

VAN DELLEN

Marriage and childbearing seem to lessen the risk of breast cancer. The reason for this protection is not known but a group of Boston surgeons suggest that women insured against the disease may possess some secondary sex characteristic that makes them want to marry and have children. We do not mean to imply that cancer does not develop among married mothers. An hereditary aspect also enters the picture in that 9 per cent of the mothers of cancer victims have had, or will develop, the disease.

The condition is most common in women between 39 and 54, a time when many are going thru the menopause. It is not known whether a relationship exists, but following menopause, the chance of developing tumor of the breast is lessened. On the other hand, this protection levels off a few years after the climactric and with advancing years the likelihood of breast cancer increases.

CANCER OF THE breast is also the most common single cause of death among white women in the 39- to 54-year-old group. Approximately 50 per cent die and there is a definite relationship between the duration of the tumor and the outcome. In 90 per cent the mass is first discovered via self-examination.

But 80 per cent delay seeking medical care. Their excuses run the gamut from "I didn't think it amounted to anything" to "I was afraid the doctor would find out the lump was cancer." Such foolishness may be fatal because it has been proved that there is a clear correlation between survival and the size of the tumor. The prognosis is not favorable when cancer cells have spread into the glands of the armpit.

BECAUSE OF all this, only 65 per cent of the women consult the doctor for a lesion that is potentially curable. Self-examination of the breast should be done at frequent intervals, but is successful only if the medico is consulted immediately when a growth is felt.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

BACK SEAT DRIVER

S. I. writes: My husband and I are planning a long auto trip but I am an impossible backseat driver. Should I take a tranquilizer to keep me quiet?

REPLY

It may help even though serenity can't be bought over the drug store counter. Perhaps you're the type who might not have a good time touring if you didn't have something to complain about. Since you are aware of your weakness, why not take a more positive approach rather than lean on a crutch?

NEURASTHENIA NOT EPILEPSY

REPLY

No. The two disorders are different. Neurasthenia means weakness and the victim is always tired and irritable. Emotional disturbances play a role. The epileptic has blackouts or convulsions that are related to abnormal brain waves rather than to emotional problems.

NEGATIVE PAP TEST

Mrs. S. writes: What does a negative result indicate in a Pap test?

REPLY

It means that the secretions did not have the atypical cells that go along with cancer.

SOFTENING THE BEARD

REPLY

Door Is Left Open For Lower Tax Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler has opened the door a crack—just a little crack—to the possibility the administration will seek a tax hike lower than the 10 per cent it unsuccessfully sought in the last session of Congress.

"I am aware of some discussion of whether or not 8 per cent would be adequate or 6 per cent would be adequate," Fowler said yesterday. He added he would reserve judgement until the House Ways and Means Committee resumes hearings Jan. 22 on President Johnson's tax plans.

FIRST SESSION

In the first session of the 90th Congress, Johnson's 10 per cent surcharge bill died in the committee. Fowler said his "current inclination" is that the 10 per cent originally requested "is good insurance to have."

Fowler has said a tax hike would improve the nation's financial standing and help reduce the $3.5 billion balance-of-payments deficit.

He said the Vietnam war is responsible for about $1.5 billion of the deficit but rejected a suggestion that the dollar drain would force the United States to curtail military commitments overseas.

But Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., called yesterday for the withdrawal of four of the six divisions of U.S. troops in Europe in order to reduce overseas spending and thus, he said, strengthen the dollar.

TROOP COSTS

The United States is spending $1.5 billion to $2 billion a year to maintain forces in Western Europe, said Proxmire, chairman of the Joint Economic Committee.

Fowler appeared on CBS' "Face the Nation" and Proxmire spoke on Metromedia's "Opinion: Washington."

Nicholas Katzenbach, undersecretary of state, returned home Sunday from Europe and reported widespread support in European capitals for the U.S. campaign to stem the dollar drain.

He told newsmen that every capital he visited—in Britain, France, West Germany, Switzerland, Belgium and Italy—"approved the principles but some expressed concern about specific provisions.

"Yet there was universal approbation that President Johnson is taking such strong measures," Katzenbach said.

He also reported the nations he visited expressed strong support for Johnson's 10 per cent income tax surcharge proposal as the quickest way to block inflation.

In Bonn, Germany, Johnson's program won qualified support from Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger but political opposition was developing in that country against the U.S. request that Bonn pay the full local costs of stationing American troops there.

TOURIST DOLLARS

Kiesinger said West Germany would be able to absorb the loss of U.S. tourist dollars and investments and would back Johnson's program "to the extent that our financial resources permit."

But he said the Washington proposals on troop costs would be studied "with all care" and with consideration to West Germany's own economy.

Boxcar Careens Into House, Kills One, Hurts Four

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — An off-duty railroader was killed and his wife and three children were injured early today when a freight train jumped the tracks west of here and sent an empty boxcar careening into their home, setting it afire.

Clark County sheriff's deputies said the woman and children were trapped briefly in the burning house but were rescued by firemen arriving at the scene. They were brought to a hospital here.

Cause of the fire was not determined immediately. However, New York Central Railroad officials said the boxcar contained nothing explosive or inflammable.

TV REVIEW

Bernard's Interview Is Dynamic

By RICK DUBROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—NBC-TV's one-hour weekend documentary, "Dr. Barnard's Heart Transplant Operations," showed what dynamism is added to television prime time when it presents timely material in human terms.

The physician — Dr. Christian Barnard, by now a name known around the world—had already been interviewed on American video, and effectively. But here was an intense, dramatic documentary Saturday with fascinating background material and perspective. And no matter what past interviews there may have been, it cannot be minimized that this hour was, above all, in prime time—which is the page one of television. The impact, the greater number of viewers reached, cannot be denied.

There had been for a time a general lack of many timely subjects in prime time. Now there seems to be a bit of a revival, to wit:

CBS-TV is putting greater emphasis on the human element in its public affairs hours, and justified itself last year with such programs as the conversation with longshoreman-author Eric Hoffer, and the four-part examination of the Warren Commission report on President Kennedy's assassination. NBC-TV has scored some journalistic coups. And ABC-TV at least has its weekly series about Vietnam, with specific subjects explored.

There was controversy about the competition for network coverage of the Barnard story, but this is nothing new. The drama of the timeliness recalled the impact of three other NBC-TV documentaries also wrapped in controversy and immediacy: "The Tunnel," about the escape of East Germans through an underground passage; an hour about Nikita Khrushchev in virtual exile at home; and a program concerning New Orleans district attorney Jim Garrison's investigation of the Kennedy assassination.

Wilson To Visit

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain will visit President Johnson in Washington Feb. 8 and 9, the White House announced today.

Vandals Hit Rec Center

Marin City's temporary recreation center was vandalized again last night. Overhead panels were ripped from the ceiling, according to sheriff's deputy Art Disterheft, who discovered the damage at 1:30 a.m. today.

There has been sporadic vandalism at the center. The first instance was serious enough to close the center in 1966 until 50 Marin City residents repaired the damage with volunteer labor.

The last reported vandalism occurred just before Christmas.

Rams Too Much For Browns In Playoff Bowl

MIAMI (AP) — Coach George Allen of the Los Angeles Rams said "we took this game as seriously as any game we've played," and the Rams reflected it by drubbing the Cleveland Browns 30-6 in the National Football League Playoff Bowl in the Orange Bowl yesterday.

"We wanted to let the world know this is as good a team as any playing next week," Allen said, referring to the Super Bowl game between the Green Bay Packers and Oakland Raiders in the same stadium next Sunday.

GABRIEL MVP

Quarterback Roman Gabriel of the Rams, voted the Most Valuable Player in the game, expressed his pleasure to a nationwide television audience when he said:

"I want to thank everybody in Miami for making our stay here so enjoyable."

He didn't mention the Browns, but he might have for they didn't come alive until the last quarter and scored with just over four minutes left in the game.

"I hear everybody talk about nobody getting up for this game," said David "Deacon" Jones, 260-pound defensive end for the Rams. "Let me tell you, these guys have a lot of pride."

Allen said his whole club had incentive despite distractings from the Teamsters Union, predraft rumors and a visit to a dog track.

CRITICISM

"We got a lot of calls and criticisms for working twice," he said of Wednesday's unprecedented double practice session. "But that's the only way to play."

A Cleveland Browns' official, who asked not to be identified, blamed the union talk for part of his team's listless first half.

"Some of these players are preoccupied with outside influences," he said in the dressing room afterward. "I know hey attended a union meeting Saturday night. Is that any way to prepare for a football game?"

The National Football League Players' Association met Saturday night in Hollywood and agreed to register as a union with the U.S. Department of Labor.

SHAKEUP AHEAD

Art Modell, president of the Browns, admitted that the meeting "didn't help" the Browns' play, and said a personnel shakeup was ahead.

Cleveland had a 9-5 record in winning the Century Division title but lost to the Dallas Cowboys 52-14 in the Eastern Conference playoff.

"I'm upset, certainly I'm upset," Modell said. "We intend to take all steps necessary to get back on the winning track."

Coach Blaton Collier agreed that "we played below normal in the first half. I can't answer why. I was satisfied with the second half, except that our offense didn't jell at all. They certainly had a better football team."

Gabriel threw 21 yards to Bernie Casey and two yards to Billy Truax for first-half touchdowns and hit Tommy Mason for 43 yards to set up a third in the final period on Willie Ellison's nine-yard run.

RECORDS

Bruce Gossett, breaking the field goal records for the game, booted three from 41, 46 and 19 yards and added three conversions for a 12-point production.

This was in the last period when Cleveland moved 81 yards to a touchdown scored by LeRoy Kelly from two yards out. The big play was a 34-yard pass from Gary Lane to Paul Warfield.

Gabriel said the Rams came to Miami for some fun in the sun—it was 80 degrees at game

But Just Look Which Teams The 49ers Beat

STATE CHAMPS — The bewitched, bothered and bewildered 49ers may have lost most of their 1967 games and a lot of their supporters in the process, but the San Francisco Club can at least claim the State of California championship.

People around the country must wonder about the frustrated 49ers. Two of their victories this season were over (1) the Super Bowl-bound Oakland Raiders and (2) the Los Angeles Rams who yesterday easily won the NFL's Playoff Bowl, alias the Also Ran Bowl, alias the Nothing Bowl.

The state title is of little consolation at the box office, however. Proving that the AFL has made a great robbery of NFL customers, particularly in the Bay Area rivalry, are the following statistics:

Raiders Outdraw Rival 49ers

The AFL Raiders averaged 39,500 paid admissions at their seven home games this season, compared to the NFL 49ers' average gate of 36,183, also for seven home games. If someone had predicted these figures seven years ago, when the Raiders were the Senors who couldn't draw flies, I would have recommended him to the silly farm. The 49ers, incidentally, averaged 53,444 on the road.

Another juicy tid-bit concerning the 49ers' great dive is provided by team publicist George McFadden. Composite quarter-by-quarter scores show a fantastic second half el foldo by the San Francisco team, particularly in the third period.

Read these composite figures and weep:

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Total
Opponents	33	78	128	92	337
49ers	75	96	47	55	273

Let's Start Drive For Brodie

SUDDEN THOUGHT: The 49ers, still coachless after Florida State's Bill Peterson nixed an offer to succeed Jach Christiansen, might try hiring quarterback John Brodie as their next head coach.

By the way, seven of the Raiders' 40-man roster played their college football in Florida, so the Oaklanders will have at least some supporters in Miami.

Beban On A Strict Pork Diet

BITTER DIET — When a quarterback is thrown for a loss while attempting to pass it is known as "eating the pigskin."

Well, Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban has been on a strict pork diet the past couple of weeks.

In two All-Star games since inheriting the Heisman "jinx," the UCLA flash has been dumped on his posterior 17 times while trying to pass.

Jean-Claude Killy Captures World Alpine Cup Ski Event

ADELBODEN, Switzerland (AP) — With a dazzling second run today, French world champion Jean-Claude Killy won the combined giant slalom event counting for the World Alpine Cup competition.

The 24-year-old customs man from Val D'Isere scorched down the second run in the sensational time of 1:34.17 minutes, more than two seconds ahead of his nearest rival, Kurt Schnyder of Switzerland, 1:35.64, followed by Stefan Kaelin of Switzerland in 1:36.22, and Gerhard Prinzing of Germany in 1:36.28.

Jim Bond Movies Slated This Week

The showing of three films by noted wildlife photographer Jim Bond is scheduled for Jan. 10-12, Wednesday through Friday, at San Rafael High School Auditorium.

The program, which will be shown at 8 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, is sponsored by the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

Marin Tars Drub Shasta Quint

The Tars, working a fast break to perfection, and forcing Shasta to an ineffective long-range shooting attack with a tight defense, worked to a 32-26 halftime edge, then broke it open in the second half behind the shooting of Russ Williams.

"The big difference was that they worked together as a team," College of Marin coach Cal Riemcke said. "And that shooting didn't hurt."

The Tars trek to Santa Rosa tomorrow night for a clash with Rochelle Collins and his Bearcat teammates. Santa Rosa, members of the Western Division along with the Tars, has a 1-1 record. The team is led by the scoring of Collins, the lad who set a College of Marin Tournament single-game scoring record with 33 points last month.

Seals End 11-Game Drought

OAKLAND (UPI) — It may be a little late, but the cellar bound Oakland Seals finally had found a winning combination today.

And the Los Angeles Kings, once the sensations of the National Hockey League's expansion clubs, were stuck in an eight game losing streak.

With little Charlie Hodge back in the nets, the Seals hung a 6-0 shutout on the Kings last night. It marked a triumphant return to the nets for Hodge, one time Montreal Canadien fixture, who had ridden the bench for the last seven games while rookie Gary Smith tended goal.

Hodge cemented the shutout when he made a fine save on Lowell MacDonald in the third period and later made a scrambling save in the crease with two seconds to play.

Probation For Louisiana Cage Team

NEW YORK (AP) — With its touchiest issue—the penalizing of colleges for recruiting infractions—already out of the way, the National Collegiate Athletic Association opened its 62nd annual convention here today.

The axe fell quickly, and fairly lightly, yesterday on the University of Southwestern Louisiana, the only institution found guilty of violations serious enough to rate punishment by the NCAA's committee on infractions.

The Lafayette, La., school had its basketball team placed on probation for two years for giving financial aid to three prospective players. Currently ranked No. 8 in the small-college rankings, the team will not be allowed to play in any postseason games.

In other pre-convention activity yesterday, the NCAA indicated that it may pull out of the U.S. Olympic Committee and instead concentrate on other international competition such as the World Student Games.

Such action would only be taken after the 1968 Olympics, according to Bill Reed, commissioner of the Big Ten and chairman of the NCAA's Olympic Committee.

"We have become only an appendage on the Olympic Committee," Reed said. "The committee is dominated by a coalition of international federations. We have virtually no voice in Olympic affairs. If we all dropped dead, the Olympic movement would hardly notice it."

Reed went on to say, however, that there was no question that college athletes would continue to participate in the Olympics.

"We never would do anything to hurt the Olympic movement," he said. "Our quarrel is with the U.S. Olympic Committee, not with the Olympic program."

Another speaker at a news conference was Stan Bates of Washington State, chairman of the NCAA special events committee, who said Birmingham, Ala., had asked to stage a football game to decide the national collegiate title if such a contest were approved by the NCAA.

Bates said bowl bids also had been received from Memphis, Tenn., Tampa, Fla., Phoenix and Tucson, Ariz., San Diego, Calif., and Atlanta. He indicated however, that these requests would probably be denied, at least for the present.

"Currently, we have declared a moratorium to restrict ourselves to 10 games," Bates said.

The suspension of Southwestern Louisiana was caused by several violations. The infractions committee said the university had permitted an "outside organization" to pay the expenses of three unnamed athletes, but that the athletes themselves were not aware of this.

Also, the committee said, an athlete had been given a loan last summer so he could fly to the campus to participate in pre-season football practice.

In addition, football coaches tried to recruit an athlete from another school and the head basketball coach held an unauthorized practice to see how well certain candidates could play.

The football team was not penalized, the committee said, because the player involved didn't stay at the university and the violation was not serious enough to warrant a penalty.

Southwestern athletic director A.G. Urban said the infractions were "unintentional violations."

Raiders Arrive In Florida, Lamonica Shakes Off Virus

BOCA RATON, Fla. (UPI) — The Oakland Raiders were breathing easier today with the word that quarterback Daryle Lamonica had recovered from a virus and would be ready to go against the Green Bay Packers in the Super Bowl Sunday.

The Raiders, who arrived here last night, were not 100 per cent healthy. Defensive tackle Tom Keating was still hobbling from an injured leg he suffered in Oakland's victory over Houston in the American Football League title game. Defensive back Roger Bird, who missed five games because of an injury, does not appear likely to play against Green Bay, and running back Clem Daniels arrived on crutches.

Tight end Billy Cannon was not with the club, but is expected to join the Raiders tomorrow. He is finishing up dental school in Memphis.

UCLA Bruins Increase Streak To 44

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

UCLA's basketball team has drawn large crowds for a long time and especially since the 1961-62 season when the Bruins began making a habit of playing in the NCAA Western Regional Championships.

This year the crowds are larger but quieter since the Bruins usually turn games into routs and the only thing in doubt is the particular weapon chosen to bludgeon the opponent.

The victory was the 44th in a row over three years, the 10th without a loss this season and the 34th at Pauley where they've never lost.

The only test for the awesome men of John Wooden appears to be one scheduled for Jan. 20 in Houston's Astrodome. About 50,000 in person and millions via television will view the Bruin-Houston game.

TWO FOR USC

Southern California opened its Pacific-8 season with a pair of victories over the Washington schools. Bill Hewitt scored the final bucket in a 58-56 triumph Friday over the Huskies. And then Hewitt came back to spark a rally in the last three minutes as Troy ripped the Cougars 92-73, scoring the final 16 points.

WIN OPENER

Harris opened the Pac-8 season Friday night with 37 points as the Indians beat Oregon 79-73.

Cal's sharpshooting guard Russ Critchfield salvaged the Golden Bear weekend.

The Bears came back from the loss to the Beavers on Friday to trounce the Ducks 96-81 next Friday and Saturday, alternating opponents. The Washington and Oregon schools battle each other in Husky and Cougar territory.

Bobby Hull Passes 400 Mark

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bobby Hull's non-stop sprint in the National Hockey League's all-time goal-scoring race has carried the Chicago Black Hawks' superstar past another checkpoint. And he's still in too much of a hurry to look back.

"I'll just have to take them as they come," Hull said last night after his 400th and 401st career goals helped Chicago's East Division leaders beat second place Boston 4-2.

FOURTH

Hull became the fourth 400-goal scorer in NHL history—joining Detroit's Gordie Howe, Montreal's Jean Beliveau and ex-Canadien star Maurice Richard—with a 45-foot blast midway in the second period. He started on the way to 500 with an open-net tally in the final minute.

"I'll keep playing and scoring, I hope, until the day comes when I'm plagued with injuries and no longer a help to the team," he said.

Three goals by Gerry Ehman helped Oakland snap an 11-game winless streak with a 6-0 victory over skidding Los Angeles; Jean Ratelle's hat trick led New York past Toronto 6-2; Montreal nipped Detroit 4-3 on Gilles Tremblay's third period goal and Philadelphia's West Division front-runners topped Pittsburgh 3-1 in other Sunday games.

MIKITA GOAL

Stan Mikita fired Chicago's go-ahead goal in the third period and Hull provided insurance with his 31st tally of the season as the Hawks moved three points up on Boston in the East.

Ratelle registered his first NHL hat trick inside five minutes in the second period after first period tallies by Reg Fleming, Orland Kurtenbach and Phil Goyette staked the Rangers to a 3-0 lead.

Tremblay snapped a 3-3 tie early in the third period, sending the Canadiens past the Red Wings, who fell into the East cellar—one point behind Montreal and New York.

PHILLY TALLIES

Forbes Kennedy, Gary Dornhoefer and Ed Hoekstra scored for Philadelphia and Doug Favell turned away 36 Pittsburgh shots in nailing mid-season goaltending honors for himself and alternate Bernie Parent.

The Flyers' goaltenders will divide $250 for allowing only 77 goals—least in the league—during the first half of the campaign.

In Saturday's games, Montreal whipped New York 5-2, Chicago drubbed Detroit 6-2, St. Louis nipped Los Angeles 2-1, Boston played Toronto to a 3-3 tie, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh tied 2-2 and Minnesota battled Oakland to a 5-5 deadlock.

Winds Leave Olympic Facilities Undamaged

COMBINED AP & UPI

GRENOBLE, France — High winds and heavy snowfalls raged through most of the French Alps yesterday, but most installations for the Feb. 6-18 Winter Olympic Games were reported undamaged.

Chimneys were knocked over, trees uprooted, and telephone poles broken by the winds, which reached 60 miles per hour in Grenoble.

A small temporary railway station near the Olympic Village was unroofed and the walls flattened. Officials estimated damages at $30,000 and said the building would be put back in shape within 12 days.

BOWLING

PHOENIX, Arix. — Dick Ritger of Hartford, Wis., defeated Eddy Patterson of Dallas, 179-166 and won the $40,000 Phoenix Open, his fourth Professional Bowling Association Championship.

GOLF

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. — Ross Collins bogeyed the last three holes but finished with a 285, two strokes better than Gene Ferrell, and became the first two-time winner of the National Left-Handers Open Golf Championship.

BUENA PARK, Calif. — Billy Casper shot a final-round 69 and won the Southern California Open Golf Tournament by three strokes with an eight-under-par 216.

NORWALK, Conn. — Arnold Palmer and Sandra Haynie have been named the top professional golfers in 1967 by Golf Digest. The magazine said each turned in the best performance average, Golf Digest's method of measuring a player's achievement in official events in comparison to that of his or her rivals.

TENNIS

PERTH, Australia — Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., defeated Australia's Margaret Smith Court 6-2, 6-4, in the singles final of the West Australian Championships after teaming with Rosemary Casals of San Francisco for the doubles title.

AUTO RACING

AUCKLAND, New Zealand — Chris Amon of New Zealand, driving a Ferrari, completed the 58 laps of the Pukekohe course in 59 minutes, 20.1 seconds and won the New Zealand Grand Prix after world champion auto racer Denis Hulme suffered a concussion in a spectacular crash with five laps to go.

Warriors Half-Game From Top

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Warriors, who take on the Detroit Pistons at the Cow Palace tomorrow night, are back within a half game of the top of the National Basketball Association's Western Division.

They achieved that position with a 107-101 victory over the Boston Celtics Saturday night. The Warriors led at the half, 55-48.

Rudy LaRusso led the Warriors' scoring with 32 points, 9 of them in the last five minutes. Fred Hetzel was second with 15, while Tom Sanders with 23 led the Celtics, followed by Bill Russell's 21.

Hetzel, who missed last Thursday night's game with St. Louis because of illness, scored 15 points. He also missed four games during the holiday season because of the flu.

Technicals Cost 76ers

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Technicals and technique—they cost Alex Hannum and the Philadelphia 76ers.

The technicals—two fouls called almost simultaneously on the 76ers coach—cost Hannum a chance to see all of yesterday's National Basketball Association game at Cincinnati as he was ejected with 3:36 left in the third quarter for protesting a personal foul call.

The technique—run and shoot by Cincinnati—cost the 76ers a chance to increase their Eastern Division lead over idle Boston to four games as the Royals rolled to a 134-118 victory.

Cincinnati really ran and shot in the fourth quarter—maybe it was just as well for Hannum's nerves that he wasn't around—when they outscored the 76ers 44-32 by hitting on 61 per cent of their field goal attempts, 16 of 26.

Jerry Lucas led Cincinnati with 34 points and a game-high 27 rebounds. Oscar Robertson added 30 points and Connie Dierking 26. Wilt Chamberlain paced Philadelphia with 36 points and 25 rebounds.

Redskins' Sonny Jurgenson To Undergo Physical Exam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington Redskins quarterback Sonny Jurgensen will undergo physical examination in Los Angeles this weekend to determine whether he can play in the Pro Bowl game Jan. 21.

Jurgensen, the National Football League's leading passer, was found last summer to have a calcium deposit on his throwing arm and he was troubled throughout the season by what was termed a tennis elbow.

Jim Kensil, the NFL's director of public relations, said from Miami: "It is Commissioner (Pete) Rozelle's understanding that Sonny will report to Los Angeles. He will be examined by a physician to determine whether he is physically able to play."

He said Redskins Coach Otto Graham, who will head the East squad in the Pro Bowl, and team physician, Dr. George Resta will be present during the physical.

Jurgensen, currently vacationing in the Virgin Islands, was not available for comment. He reportedly has confided to his friends, however, that he does not want to play in the Pro Bowl.

It is the fourth time the Washington quarterback has been invited, but he has played only once due to injuries.

San Rafael Nine Triumphs, 8-2

Old pro Jess Jacinto blasted a pair of doubles and drove in three runs to spark the San Rafael Braves to an 8-2 win over Sabella's in San Francisco Triple A Winter League baseball action in Golden Gate Park yesterday.

Hurlers Ben Trujillo and Ken Dyer combined for a two-hitter, with Dyer getting the victory in relief.

CSONKA ON THE LOOSE — Syracuse's All-American fullback Larry Csonka breaks away for nine yards for the North in the 22nd annual North-South Hula Bowl in Honolulu. The 230-pound Csonka picked up 117 yards and was named the game's outstanding back. (UPI Telephoto)

Crosby's Pro-Am This Week

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Big-name golfers, pros and amateurs, from throughout the United States are assembled at Pebble Beach for Bing Crosby's annual National Pro-Am Championship.

The $104,500 clambake starts Thursday. But there will be some tough competition and stiff practice before that.

At least 20 places for nonexempt pros will be at stake in an 18-hole qualifying round to be played today.

Tuthill reported that Julius Boros, twice U.S. Open champion, will not be here. But other prominent golfers, including Jack Nicklaus, current U.S. Open champion and defending Crosby champion, are entered.

The Crosby is for 72 holes. Three rounds of 18 holes each will be played over the Pebble Beach, Spyglass Hill and Cypress Point courses. The final 18 will be over Pebble Beach.

This year's tournament, the 27th, is a week earlier than in former years.

Revenge For Dixie: South Triumphs In Senior Bowl

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Alabama's Dennis Homan and Florida State's Kim Hammond apparently believe that "if you can't beat 'em, join 'em."

Neither won way back in September when Alabama battled Florida State to a 37-37 tie, despite two touchdown catches by Homan and three scoring tosses by Hammond.

But they teamed up for the South Saturday and led Dixie to a 34-21 whipping of the North in the 19th annual Senior Bowl battle.

Homan was picked as the South's top lineman and Hammond was named the best back and the game's most valuable player.

The Alabama end caught a 17-yard touchdown pass and set up three other scores with pass catches and a long run on an end - around play. Hammond tossed the touchdown throw to Homan and also hit on a scoring strike to Lamar Techs Tom Smiley.

The victory was only the South's second in 11 battle with outsiders in bowl and all - star games, but Tennessee center Bob Johnson said, "That did a lot to square things up."

Johnson said the Dixie standouts wanted to make up for their dismal bowl showing "and I feel we made up a lot of lost ground by winning this one."

The North was a touchdown underdog but was blasted out of contention early in the second half after it gambled and failed on a fourth and one inch situation on its 30-yard line.

The South quickly scored a touchdown and then added 10 more points in the third quarter to clinch the conquest, which boosted Dixie's edge in the series to 12-6-1.

Individual standouts for the South included defensive linemen Forrest Bue of Auburn and Claude Humphreys of Tennessee A&I and linebacker Greg Pipes of Baylor.

The North was given an early shot in the arm by the passing of Paul Toscano of Wyoming, who hit on 10 straight throws in the first half and tossed a touchdown pass to his Wyoming teammate, Jim Kiick. Haven Moses of San Diego State set a Senior Bowl record by returning a kickoff 100 yards, and Toledo's John Schneider threw a 43-yard pass to Ken Dyer of Arizona State for the other North score.

Toscano was chosen as the North's top back and Moses, an end, was picked as the best lineman.

A proper address position is to stand fairly erect — a slight crouch may be acceptable — with the ball held in front of the body with both hands. A deep stoop or crouch has to throw you off balance, for the ball's weight will tip you forward.

Novato's Matmen Win Opener

Novato High School's unbeaten wrestling team opened defense of its Marin County Athletic League title with a smashing victory over Tamalpais Friday, then came in a hair-raising second in the 16-team John F. Kennedy Memorial Tournament in Fremont Saturday.

The Hornets ripped the Indians 47-10, winning the meet's first ten matches before Tam's Mike Fowler broke the spell at 175 pounds with a pin victory.

Thirty-three members of the Headquarters Western Communications Region and 1902 Communications Squadron at Hamilton Field will compete.

Competition for singles will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday, doubles play will be 7 p.m. Thursday, and six-man team events will be Friday at 9 a.m. Scores will be sent to Scott Air Force Base, Ill., and the world-wide winners will be selected from the results.

HULA BOWL STOMP

Four Hours Practice Is Enough For North

HONOLULU (AP) — Do football teams practice too much?

Duffy Daugherty, Michigan State coach who handled the North All-Stars when they demolished a South All - Star team 50-6 in the 22nd Hula Bowl game Saturday, was wondering that himself.

"Maybe we coaches take this game too seriously and make it too complex," Daugherty said. "We practiced exactly four hours for this game, and we played as a unit beautifully."

Of course, Daugherty had the services of his own quarterback, Jimmy Raye, and Rick Cassata of Syracuse to handle the North attack, with fullback Larry Csonka of Syracuse to power it. He also had Johnny Wright of Illinois, who caught two touchdown passes, including a 48-yarder from Cassata, after a pitchout from Raye in some fourth-quarter razzle-dazzle.

On defense, Daugherty had Wayne Meylan of Nebraska and huge Harry Gunner of Oregon State, who were outstanding.

Gunner spent most of the afternoon knocking down South quarterback Gary Beban, just as he had during the regular season.

"We couldn't handle Meylan," Beban said. "And every time I thought I saw daylight that big number 90 (Gunner) closed it up."

It was the third straight victory for the North, fifth of the last six and most lopsided margin in Hula Bowl history.

The game was televised live to the Mainland via Lani Bird satellite.

Collectors of Internal Residue . . .

Our cartoon shows a team of "little people" eagerly at work removing many types of soil from the pile and the backing of a carpet. These "collectors" point up one of the most taxing problems facing professional carpet cleaners today, that of removing the accumulation of soil held deep in the pile of wall-to-wall carpeting.

Carpet fibers, especially the new synthetic ones, build up a static electric charge which attracts and holds soil. Foot traffic, and also gravity, help to drive dirt particles down to the carpet backing. These particles of dirt, when moved about by foot traffic, cause a harmful, cutting, abrasive action on the carpet fibers. This is how the real wearing of carpet takes place. This continuous cutting action of the deeply embedded soil on the fibers will soon cause visible wear in all traffic areas. Now, however, with the development of the remarkable new DEEP STEAM CARPET CLEANING process, this problem has been brought under control.

The DEEP STEAM process applies wet steam (containing a cleaning agent and soil retardant) under pressure deep into the carpet fibers. The cleaning agent and the wet steam combine to break down the soil and the static electric charge, which holds the soil deep in the pile of the carpet, and brings this soil into suspension. Then—INSTANTLY—the moisture and soil are removed by the powerful continuous extraction process into a separate stainless steel container. During the DEEP STEAM cleaning operation every carpet fiber is coated with SOIL RETARDANT and MOTHPROOFING. When using this method we GUARANTEE that your wall-to-wall carpet will be cleaner than ever before possible.

Today is Monday, Jan. 8, the eighth day of 1968 with 358 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full stage. The morning star is Venus. The evening stars are Mars, Saturn and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1918, President Wilson presented his 14 Points Plan for Peace to Congress, which later turned it down.

In 1963, the first session of the 88th Congress opened. It did not adjourn until Dec. 30.

A thought for the day: Poet James Russell Lowell once said, "Then it is the brave man chooses, while the coward stands aside."

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE
By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Never Tell Your Partner All For Opponents Are Listening, Too

Most people think that the object of bidding is to tell your partner all about your hand. Actually, there is such a thing as telling your partner more than he wants to know.

BEST DEFENSE

South's bidding showed a three-suited hand, which made it easy for West to see that a trump opening lead was the best defense. East took the ace of trumps and returned a trump.

South cashed the top diamonds, ruffed a diamond in dummy and led the king of hearts to get rid of a club. West took the ace of hearts and led another trump to take the last trump out of the dummy.

Declarer could get rid of another club on the queen of hearts, but he still had to lose one trick in each suit. He thus managed to make only his part-score contract of three spades.

JUMP TO GAME

When the hand was played in the open team championship last month, during the national tournament in New Orleans, most experts jumped to four spades on the South hand without bothering to bid the clubs. In all of these cases West made the normal opening lead of a low club.

This lead enabled South to make game. He took the club ace, cashed the top diamonds, ruffed a diamond and led the king of hearts to discard a club.

RUFF DIAMOND

The defenders could take the ace of hearts and a club, followed by the ace of trumps and another trump, but South could ruff another diamond in dummy and throw his last club on the queen of hearts.

If you need a moral, it might be: don't pass the buck. When you know enough to make a decision, make it; don't tell or ask more than you need.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens 1-notrump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ A 9
♥ 10 9 7 4
♦ Q 9 7 2
♣ K 10 7

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two clubs, the Stayman Convention, asking partner to bid a major suit of four or more cards if he can. If partner bids hearts, you will jump to four hearts; otherwise you will bid 3-notrump at your next turn.

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Years after the Texas Highway Department was established, officials became concerned with living things along the right of way and highway engineer Gibb Gilchrist ordered crews to leave as many trees as possible intact along the roadway. To give impetus to his order, he attached a reprint of Joyce Kilmer's poem, "Trees," to the memorandum.

INCOME TAX FACTS

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, CPA

Sooner Tax Return Filed, Sooner Any Refund If One Due For 1967

Wikel

How soon can I get my refund?

If you have a refund due be sure to mail your return to:

Internal Revenue Service
1160 West 1200 South Street
Ogden, Utah 84405

This will save time and you'll get your refund sooner.

Internal Revenue Service
San Francisco, California, 94102

The Internal Revenue Service gets them out just as soon as it possibly can and tries to get them all out by June 30, so it will not have to pay you interest on the refund. The sooner you file, the sooner you get the refund.

If you carefully fill in your return fully and completely and mail it early, you could have your refund in as little as three weeks. If you are unlucky, or your return requires auditing, it could take several months, or even several years in extreme cases.

This year individual returns in California are on Automatic Data Processing. From now on information about you and your income tax returns will be stored permanently on magnetic tape.

We are numbers. We aren't named individuals any more, althouth our last name is still important. That is, the first four letters are important. The Internal Revenue Service punches into the machines all nine digits of your social security number plus all of your name and address.

However, the machines only use the social security number plus the first four letters of your surname for identification purposes. Now, we can speed up the process if we use the piggy back label which the Internal Revenue Service sent you with your blank income tax return forms for 1967.

If you've never seen a piggy back label it looks just like any other address label except that there are two copies, one on top of the other. When you have your return completed you should remove the top label from the package sent to you by the Internal Revenue Service, (it peels off easy) and stick it on the tax return you are sending in.

When IRS receives a return with this piggy back label attached they know that this piggy back label will match up with their machine and this speeds up your refund.

Here are a few hints which will help insure the smooth handling of your return by the new computer system:

Make sure to list your complete address and Social Security number if you cannot use the piggy back label.

Good Economic News Aids Market To Rise

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher in heavy trading today.

Good economic news, including a large rise in steel orders, and a Commerce Department forecast of rising industrial production throughout the year were among the bullish factors.

General Motors advanced more than a point; Sears Roebuck over 2; International Harvester nearly 2; United Aircraft and Commonwealth Edison more than a point each.

Up about 3 in active trading were Missouri-Kansas-Texas and Gulf & Western. Also very active, St. Regis Paper and Consolidated Cigar rose nearly 2 points each.

Homestake and High Voltage Engineering were other 2-point gainers. Up about a point were many stocks, including Republic Corp., Johns-Manville, Liggett & Myers, Xerox, Standard Oil (New Jersey), IBM and General Electric.

Bank Of Marin Reports Profits

Bank of Marin's net operating profit after taxes for 1967 is reported at $151,625, or $1.78 per share. Profit for 1967 more than doubled the 1966 profit of 88 cents per share.

Total resources reached a new high of $31,613,475 at year's end, up 21 per cent over the previous year.

At the time of the bank's fifth anniversary in November, a 50 cents per share dividend was declared payable on Jan. 19.

INVESTING

Be Sure To Watch Chemicals

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. We are in our early 60s and retired. We own Consolidated Edison; American Cyanamid; General Aniline; American Telephone; International Tel. & Tel. We have a loss on the first three and wonder if we should replace then with a stock paying at least 5 per cent in dividends. — S.M.

A. It is always distressing to me that so many readers have losses on pretty good stocks that have simply fallen out of investor favor. I would not sell Consolidated Edison or any other sound utility at present low levels. The shares yield 5.8 per cent and the dividend appears secure. You must always remember, though, that stocks in public demand usually yield very little and the utilities at current prices look to me to be pretty well sold out — although recovery may be slow.

General Aniline has acted rather poorly in spite of the fact that the future prospects of the company now show signs of improvement. The stock offers a return of only 2 per cent and in your circumstances I would switch it into International Harvester, an issue yielding 5½ per cent with a good record and, in my opinion, relatively undervalued. American Cyanamid, like most of the chemicals, has gone nowhere in recent years and I would exchange it for Tenneco, yielding 4.8 per cent, which I believe is better situated for price improvement through diversification.

The largest known fossilized skull of a bison found in the United States was located in South Dakota by Irvin M. Peithmann, former Southern Illinois University curator of archaeology.

Caravelli Interiors Now Open For Business In Corte Madera

Decorator Rocco A. Caravelli, a Corte Madera resident, has been in this type of work since he was 17, but this is his first venture for himself. In the past he has worked with Commercial Interiors, San Francisco; in the wholesale floor covering business, and more recently with the French Bros. furnishing store in San Francisco.

He will specialize in carpeting, draperies and custom furniture. Stocks were expected to arrive this week. Hours will be from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Mondays and from 9:30 to 5:30 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays.

A NEW mail order-import and export project called Pandora's Treasures has been established by Mrs. Ann (Bobbie) Moore of San Rafael.

Merchandise stocks at this point are mostly made up of domestic items but other aritcles are being imported and Mrs. Moore expects to have a full catalog made. Meanwhile a brochure of present stocks has been prepared and is available by writing the mail order address, P. O. Box 2611, San Rafael. Merchandise includes gifts, novelty items, household accessories and electrical devices.

Cooper

Malkemus

JOSEPH W. COOPER of Kentfield has been appointed executive vice president of J. W. McAllister Co., automotive and equipment leasing company and lessor of large fishing fleets. In addition to his new duties he will continue to supervise financial operations. He joined the organization in 1927.

EUGENE A. MALKEMUS of Novato is a co-winner of an award for a bucket attachment for a standard fork lift vehicle used by Pacific Gas and Electric Co. The device is employed in loading material for backfilling gas pipeline trenches. He and Ralph Roberts of Vallejo received checks for more than $400 each for their time and money saving idea. Malkemus is gas superintendent for the Marin district of PG&E.

CORRECTION. Kenneth V. Larkin of Greenbrae has been promoted to senior vice president of marketing at Bank of America. He has been a vice president for several years.

NEW ASSISTANT sales manager for Macy's San Rafael store will be Sydney Dorn of Ross, effective Feb. 1. He has been with Macy's since 1952 and is presently buyer for boy's wear. He replaces Vern Halversen of Santa Venetia, who is being transferred to Macy's in Sacramento.

All Good Neighbors On Tiburon Council

The Little Reed Heights City Council will concern itself with matters on Tiburon Boulevard and Angel Island at its meeting tonight.

Mayor John S. Hoffmire, who lives at 583 Virginia Drive, and Councilman Thomas E. Drohan, who lives a short walk up the hill at 162 Stewart Drive, will be joined on the council for the first time by Drohan's neighbor, new Councilman Rampton W. Harvey, who lives at 173 Stewart Drive.

It's called the Tiburon City Council, but the three neighbors give Little Reed Heights a majority of the five members.

Then, too, Councilman Branwell Fanning is pretty close by at 4 Burrell Court in Reedlands, although the street pattern makes neighborly calls on Hoffmire, Drohan or Rampton a bit inconvenient for him.

Councilman William R. Bremer is clear out of it. He lives 'way up at the north end of Tiburon at 120 Taylor Road — almost in Corte Madera. That's not quite so far from Little Reed Heights as the south tip of Angel Island — which is also the south tip of Tiburon. But it's almost.

THIS COSY ARRANGEMENT which puts the city council majority all on two streets, one just a block up the hill from the other, came about when Harvey was chosen at a closed meeting in November at which veteran Councilman Gordon W. Strawbridge told his fellow city fathers he was resigning. The appointment was announced at the same Dec. 11 meeting at which Strawbridge announced his resignation publicly.

Tiburon meanders over a pretty big area. But Little Reed Heights is centrally located.

The three neighbors and their almost-neighbor — plus Councilman Bremer from 'way up there beyond Paradise Cay — will weigh the considerations of people the length of the peninsula as they consider, for instance, whether the City of Tiburon should get involved in a dispute between rival operators of tours to Angel Island.

Milton McDonogh, who operates Angel Island Tours, wants the city to appear on his behalf at a California Public Utilities Commission hearing Jan. 18 to oppose a certificate for Harbor Carriers, Inc., to operate a similar tour service. Little Reed Heights can decide that issue.

The neighbors (and Mr. Bremer) all drive on Tiburon Boulevard, so they all feel strongly on a second matter up tonight: award of contract for drainage improvements down at the low end of the boulevard in downtown Tiburon.

Until Dr. Charles W. Aby stepped off the San Rafael City Council, it had three members from the West End: Aby, who lives on Eye Street; Fred E. Jensen, who lives on Center Street, and Mayor C. Paul Bettini, who lives on Chestnut Avenue in Fairhills.

It wouldn't appear possible, though, to throw a rock from Chestnut Street to either Center or Eye — even though it's all downhill. But a good strong arm might be able to send one down the hill from Harvey's place to Hoffmire's (if it didn't hit Drohan's window on the way).

Of course, San Rafael covers more territory than Tiburon — 18.5 square miles to Tiburon's 13.8 (and 10.2 square miles of Tiburon are under water, compared to 5.8 square miles of San Rafael).

Anyhow, it's very handy to concentrate the city council in one neighborhood. It makes for togetherness.

The city fathers might even be able to avoid going downtown to city hall for meetings — though that would be no convenience for Mr. Bremer.

The Miraculous Rabbage

Cross a radish and a cabbage and what do you have? Either a cadish or rabbage. It has been done recently in the Soviet Union and whatever one calls it, it sounds downright fantastic.

Having leaves like a cabbage and a root like a radish, the entire vegetable is edible and rich in vitamin C.

The developers claim it is the fastest growing plant in the world. Under artificial light in Leningrad laboratories, the Russians claim the rabbage produces 20 crops a year.

No one could expect to produce this record outside the laboratory. But if it did only a third as well in natural circumstances, it would go far toward easing famine in this hungry world.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Medi-Cal Able To Pay Old Bills, But Trouble Still Lies Ahead

By HENRY C. MacARTHUS

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Announcement by Gordon P. Smith, state director of finance, that the state has been able to pay off approximately $61 million worth of bills owed for the Medi-Cal program during the 1966-67 fiscal year no doubt will open anew the furor over financing the vast aid program.

But the fact the bills have been paid off by no means solves the over-all problem, which will provide the 1968 Legislature with one of the biggest financial headaches it yet has experienced.

Smith says it is estimated that Medi-Cal can be budgeted next year at a $336 million level. But, he said, early estimates from the state office of health care services indicate that without further reforms, expenditures can run close to $400 million.

All of which puts the final touches on setting the stage for a partisan political hassle as the state's lawmakers go into a new session and consider the 1968-69 budget.

Smith said that the financing of the $61 million to pay off past-due bills resulted from $20 million in operating economies in various state departments, coupled with a one-time saving of more than $40 million in the school allocation formula of 1966-67.

"But without a basic overhaul," he stated, "the fact remains that Medi-Cal expenses are increasing at a rate much faster than the state's income, and will require either tax increases or cuts in either services or recipient rolls."

It becomes a political issue in that the Reagan administration is shying away from continuing the program at its present level, while the Democrats will seek to discredit the Republicans for any curtailments that bus be accomplished to keep the program in present levels.

Basically, the Legislature bit off more than the taxpayers can chew when it adopted the Medi-Cal program, and now are confronted with the problem of fitting it to the ability of the people to pay. The job won't be easy.

AMERICA'S number one woman tennis player, Billie Jean Moffit, is not one to keep her very definite opinions to herself. For instance, she has a pat answer for the steady downgrading of male American tennis stars in recent years. "I don't think our men," vouchsafes Billie, "really give a darn any longer whether or not they're the best in the world. There's no glory any more in this country!" Of tennis in general, she worries about its future in the U.S.A. "What we've got to do with sennis," says she, "is get it off the society pages and onto the sports pages!"

Jim Davis tells of a widow who discovered that her deceased spouse had left the bulk of his estate to his secretary. The irate lady sought to have the inscription on his gravestone changed. She was told, "You ordered it to read 'Rest in Peace' and it's too late to change it now." "O.K.," she conceded. "Just add, 'Until We Meet Again.' "

Goldberg A Good Man, But . . .

(Reprinted from Detroit Free Press)

Ambassador Arthur Goldberg, U. S. representative to the United Nations, accepted the assignment in 1965 with the hope that he could find a path to peace in Vietnam.

Now, he laments, "The greatest disappointment — and here I will be personal, I will speak for myself — the greatest disappointment and frustration . . . is my inability, which I lay to myself, to have been more successful in trying to find a way to have the UN play a constructive role in making peace in Vietnam."

In saying that "certain members" of the Security Council had blocked U. S. efforts to place the Vietnam war before the Council, the Ambassador was referring to the Soviet Union and France.

What Mr. Goldberg did not mention is that his advice to Washington has often been disregarded by his own government. An ambassador without influence at home can perform no miracles.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

(Editor's note: Last Nov. 1, the Independent-Journal ran a story on the needs of the Hoi Duc Anh Orphanage in Vietnam, as related by First Lt. Antone F. Sousa in a letter to his parents, Fire Chief and Mrs. Frank Sousa of San Anselmo. The letter which follows resulted from that story.)

Thanks To Marinites From Saigon Orphans

Editor, Independent-Journal:

This is simply a belated thank-you note addressed to all who gave and who are continuing to give to aid the Hoi Duc Anh Orphanage here in Saigon.

Your response was overwhelming. We have been literally exposed to an avalanche of packages for the past two months, and items are still continuing to be received.

Basically, here is what we have done: Many of the packages, especially those which contained clothing, were distributed almost immediately to the children. Much of the candy and toys was given at a Christmas party the GIs gave for the kids on 24 Dec. All of the monetary donations have gone into our Hoi Duc Anh Orphanage committee fund, which is used to purchase necessary items such as food, medical supplies, text books, etc. Also committee fund money is used to send children to high school as well as to improve health and standards of sanitation at the orphanage. (We recently installed "western" type plumbing as well as showers in some of the dormitories here.)

A great bulk of the packages, however, have been saved and placed aside to be distributed to the children at Vietnamese Tet, which occurs in the first few days of February. This is the Vietnamese Christmas — their real celebration. Hence, we will have the "big party" at this time.

Although there is still so much to do here, to the people of Marin, I take my hat off and salute you. Your contributions have made 1,400 children a little more happy and little more comfortable. Furthermore, you have made the Christmas season much more meaningful and much more enjoyable to the many GIs involved in this program. To this I thank you, the soldiers thank you, and the children thank you.

In closing, I would simply like to say that in due time all those who gave to this cause will receive individual thank-you notes. However, because of our tremendous workload and 24-hour capability, at the present time, we are not able to do this. We will, though, make every effort to thank each and every one of you. I also extend my thanks to the Independent-Journal and its staff for publicizing our story and making our plight known. Thank you again.

Corte Madera Mayor Against Parking Lot

Editor, Independent-Journal:

According to a recent item in "I-J Reporter's Notebook" by Elizabeth Von Kahl, a Capt. Kenneth E. Taylor suggests that the bayside of Corte Madera should be converted into a huge parking lot to accommodate ferry commuters to San Francisco. In answer to that quote, I wish it to be known that I will oppose any attempt to convert the bayside of Corte Madera into a parking lot for commuters and to extend this answer further, I will oppose any other area within Corte Madera being converted to this use.

Fairfax Protests 'Fall On Deaf Ears'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

On Dec. 13, 1967, I presented a petition to Mayor Pagni and the Fairfax City Council representing 315 taxpayers of Fairfax opposing the Fairfax General Plan now under consideration.

As I understand it, a public hearing is to give the citizens a chance to voice their opinions. It appears to me that a single voice is unheard at city council meetings, as many citizens have made suggestions only only to have them fall upon deaf ears. For this reason a petition was used.

I think the general feeling of the citizens of Fairfax is that any plan such as this can only result in further tax increases. We are already burdened too much.

I want a general plan, but I want a general plan that we feel we can accomplish without taxing us out of our homes. We need more commercial development to carry the tax load. This is needed to operate the city, as well as to finance long-range capital improvement programs. So I urge the council to consider the general feelings of the taxpayers of Fairfax.

A lack of communications can exist both ways. I myself, as an interested taxpayer, will try to convey my thoughts to the council more than I have in the past.

It is my wish that the year 1968 will bring a better understanding between the council and the citizens.

WASHINGTON REPORT

Vietnam Reform Attempt Tottering

By SAVILLE DAVIS
Washington Bureau Chief,
Christian Science Monitor

WASHINGTON — "We have six months to launch our political program," President Thieu of South Vietnam told a friend, "or we will lose the people." That was last September, after he was elected. More than half that time has gone by. There is no sign of an adequate program. The government of Mr. Thieu and Vice President Ky is already regarded in Saigon as ineffective.

Taking Mr. Thieu at his word, he is heading for trouble. Taking Washington at its word — everyone from the president down says the conflict in Vietnam is first of all political — the United States is in trouble. Unless there is an extraordinary burst of energy, the house that Jack Kennedy built when he sent 18,000 military "advisers" to South Vietnam is in danger of having the roof fall in.

THIS WOULD NOT be so serious if President Johnson had not wagered so much on the Thieu regime. He backed it during the election campaign, indirectly to be sure, trusting that it would bring stability. Later, he and his astute agent, Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker, used strong persuasion on Messrs. Thieu and Ky to broaden the base of the military regime. They urged bringing civilians and opposition political leaders into the government and giving the new national assembly a creative role.

Messrs. Thieu and Ky may do this but they haven't yet.

There have been some steps to reform their army which is excessively corrupt in power, graft, and social attitudes and which preys on the people. But this is only a start.

The object of the constitution-making exercise was to give the country a political lift. Without it the guerrilla war will continue to languish, no matter how well the Americans deal with the main force units of the Vietcong and North Vietnam.

IN THE WORDS of the acknowledged expert, Maj. Gen. Edward G. Lansdale: "The Communists let loose a revolutionary idea in Vietnam that will not die by being ignored, bombed, or smothered by us. Ideas do not die in that way . . .

"The war in Vietnam is a peopple's war. When the right cause is identified and used correctly, the anti-Communist fight becomes a pro-people fight, with the overwhelming majority of people then starting to help what they recognize to be their own side."

As things now stand, the village people are ready to be impressed with their new constitutional government, elected by themselves, but they are given no strong reason to be impressed So most of them remain as cynical as they always have been about governments in the capital city. President Thieu told an American the problems of his country could be summed up in two words: "social revolution." The revolution is still unborn. Hopefully it is not stillborn.

THE DELAY is easy to explain. The military leaders, now suddenly become the civil leaders of the country, know little of politics. A knowledgeable American calls their regime "a vacuum of government." They are now pledged to reform the institution which they head — the army — by the hardest route: from the inside. They are faced with latent opposition from the civilians who ran for president, though there is a general awareness that civilians and military have to cooperate if the war is to move ahead.

It is doubtless too much to expect a social revolution from two ex-generals in six months. Common sense would give them a much longer time.

But the war won't wait. Canny and suspicious villagers won't respond to a tepid, half-baked program of reforms, applied piecemeal and mostly postponed. If everyone is right from Ho to Johnson that the better revolution will win, then the Communists still dominate the political field by default.

PRESIDENT THIEU cannot afford, and President Johnson cannot tolerate, a shortfall on the political front for much longer. It makes no sense for the political component of the war to drag when such prodigious effort is being poured into the military.

Mr. Johnson is an experienced political leader. If he put his back into it, if he could shed the usual inhibition about intervening in the affairs of others, this Texas rancher with a feeling for poor and neglected people could pack a powerful revolutionary wallop. That is what both Vietnam and the United States sorely need, but fast.

Castro In Firm Control Despite Cuban Shortages

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Despite severe economic pressures brought on by the United States, a serious difference of opinion with the Soviet Union and some obvious failures, Fidel Castro's grip on Cuba remains firm nine years after he came to power.

In fact, except for the Bay of Pigs incident which turned out to be a fiasco for the United States, he has had no serious challenge.

This despite the fact that Cuba continues to be an island of shortages of almost all descriptions, to which was added on his ninth anniversary strict rationing of gasoline.

DRESSED IN his customary olive-green fatigue uniform, Castro told 200,0000 Cubans gathered in Marti Plaza for the anniversary that the Soviet Union had a limited capacity for meeting Cuba's mounting petroleum needs.

He disclosed that since the middle of 1967 hes has been drawing "advances" on scheduled fuel shipments and declared it neither dignified nor proper that Cuba should have to ask such advances.

In the last two months, he said, Cuba had had to dip into strategic military petroleum stocks.

The first is the half million dollars per day which the Soviet Union has pumped into his economy.

The second is the inablility of the United States to persuade other principal world suppliers, such as Britain and Japan, to go along with its economic embargo.

The third is the Cuban people themselves, to whom Castro has promised a new prestige and new social order. Malcontents are being gotten out of the country at the rate of some 50,000 a year. School children are being educated under the strict discipline of Castro communism.

CASTRO'S GREATEST failure has been his inability to export his revolution to other Latin American countries. His determination to become the recognized leader of all Latin American revolution not only has estranged him from other Communist parties in the hemisphere but also is the principal source of his disagreement with Moscow.

The oil shortage could be one sign of Moscow disfavor.

ART BUCHWALD

They Also Serve Who Only Sit And Watch, Watch, Watch

WASHINGTON — The most valuable television football-watcher's award was presented last week to Harry Dalinsky of Georgetown at a dinner given at Duke Zeibert's restaurant in Washington. Dalinsky, who could not attend because he was watching the Orange Bowl game at the time, was represented by his wife, Marion, who said in her acceptance speech that Harry considered it a great honor to be voted the trophy, which consisted of a silver tray which was a replica of a TV dinner.

Marion, who addressed the 1,200 distinguished guests — all wives of men who also were unable to attend the dinner because they, too, were watching the Orange Bowl game — said: "This is probably one of the great moments in Harry's life, and he told me during a commercial, just before I was leaving for the dinner, that he wanted all of you to know that if he could have possibly got out of his chair, he would have been here tonight.

"Harry wanted to say that this trophy belongs not only to him but to all the people who made it possible — Robert Sarnof of NBC, William Paley of CBS, Leonard Goldenson of ABC and the announcers, the cameramen, the technicians, down to the lowliest soundmen who gave so much of their time and effort to make him look good."

IN PRESENTING the award Mrs. Robert Yoakum, standing in for her husband who was supposed to be master of ceremonies, said that Dalinsky had not missed one football game that was televised in 1967, including all the preseason contests as well as reruns of games from former years.

His eyeballs had covered more yardage and he has passed up more meals and caught more hell from his family than any football-watcher of the year.

Mrs. Yoakum said that Dalinsky had received 34,578 votes. The runner-up for the trophy was Gordon Manning of New Canaan, Conn., who had been the league's leading watcher until late into November, when unfortunately his house burned down. By the time the fire was out, Manning was only able to catch the last half of the New York Giants-Minnesota Vikings game, and he never was able to regain his stride.

The highlight of the evening was films of Dalinsky watching some of the great football plays of the year. One was of Dalinsky sitting on the edge of his chair as Chicago's Gale Sayers ran a 100-yard kick return. Another showed Kalinsky drinking a beer as the Los Angeles Rams' Fearsome Foursome smeared Baltimore's Johnny Unitas, and a third historical shot showed Dalinsky on his feet changing channels to watch the New York Jets' Joe Namath pass for a 60-yard touchdown play.

One film, shot by director Andy Warhohl, showed Dalinsky sitting staring at his set for three hours without moving a muscle. It is considered one of the greatest underground films ever made.

MRS. TONY BRADLEY, whose husband was chairman of the awards committee, wound up the evening by saying: "The most valuable television football-watcher's award is given to a person, not only because of his viewing ability in the living room, but because he exemplifies the spirit and traditions of the American husband who eyeball - to - eyeball has devoted his life to watching football on TV.

"It is the Harry Dalinskys of this world that have made TV football viewing what it is today, and an inspiration to the youth of the country, who someday will be watching football themselves."

After the dinner, reporters found Mrs. Dalinsky sitting at a table all alone. When asked what she was doing there, she replied, "Harry told me not to come home until the Orange Bowl game was over."

Records Prove Weather Colder, Drier–But Christmas, Well . . .

By this date last year, Novato had 12.64 inches of rain. This year it has had 5.05 inches.

The all-time cold mark of 22 degrees was set on Jan. 12 and 13, 1963. The next coldest day recored was 25 degrees on Jan. 19, 1966. However, this year the temperature dropped to that same low of 25 degrees last Wednesday and Thursday.

'TWAS THE DAY after Christmas . . .

The Novato police station was permeated with the aromas of various kinds of liquor. Beer, wine, whiskey, brandy, vodka and gin could all be detected in the atmosphere.

AS QUIETLY as dew forming on the grass, the last step in completion of the Novato or North Marin master plan occurred last week — delivery, after almost five years, of the text to the plan.

Authorized in 1963, the plan was scheduled for completion in December, 1964. Wording in text and general master plan were approved in February, 1966, by the Novato City Council.

Almost two years later, the printed text was delivered to the city by the Marin County Planning Department, which had contracted the job.

Glancing through the book, one can easily date it. For example, the Novato City Council members listed included Lucile Cannon and Robert D. Carrow, neither of whom has been on the council for two years.

Billy D. Dobbs was head of the Marin County Planning Department when the plan was started. Paul C. Zucker holds that position now. Robert Lagle was head of the Novato Planning Department. That position is now held by Mark P. David.

The study reported Novato had two fire stations. The third station, in San Marin, has been in operation since July, 1966.

Mental Center Staff Plans Under Study

Recommendations of the Mental Health Advisory Board concerning administration of the new Community Mental Health Center will be made after a meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Coral Room of Marin General Hospital.

Dr. Gerald Hill, chairman of the board, said preliminary discussion about administration of the center, under construction next to Marin General Hospital, took place at a meeting Friday night. Final proposals were delayed until the Wednesday session, he said.

Post Office Seeks Maintenance Garage

Bids to build and lease a maintenance garage for San Rafael Post Office vehicles are being sought, according to Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien. The building will be located on Simms Street next to the new post office.

The postmaster general said bidding documents may be obtained from the department's real estate officer, Warren K. Branscum, at 631 Howard Street, San Francisco. Bids must be submitted by 2 p.m. Feb. 7.
